ALL "CLASSIC REPRODUCTIONS" ARE NOW MAILED BETWEEN SHEETS OF HEAVY PASTEBOARD.

Don't miss "THE GOLDEN AGE" #3, the companion article fanzine of the RB&CC. Contributors include Don Newton, Tom Fagan, Jim Jones, Howard Siegel, Raymond Miller, and others. $1.50 from the SFCA.

ATTENTION : ALL COLLECTORS OF GREAT COMIC ART !!

The SFCA has now embarked on a new innovation that we feel will open up a whole new field of collecting for the serious comic fan. In the months and years to come, we will be offering what we call "CLASSIC REPRODUCTIONS". These will be big, 10½ x 13½, black and white (half tone) reproductions of only the FINEST COMIC ART around. They are printed on heavy, high-quality, 6-ply coated pasteboard. They're suitable for framing, hanging on the wall as is, or collecting in a portfolio. In fact, you may want to buy two copies of some of your favorites, one for your wall, and one for your portfolio.

While we would all like to have a large collection of "original" comic art, the expense of such a collection is pretty discouraging. However these "Classics" (and they are just that), are about the closest thing you can get to an "original", and at a price all fans can afford. But, let's get back to the art itself, for that is really the most important thing. Most, if not all, of these reproductions will be made from original drawings and paintings (mostly paintings) by two of the most talented artists around—John Fantucchio and Don Newton!! Never has a name, "Classic Reproductions", so aptly described an item! Once you buy one, we are sure you will want to collect the entire series, which we feel will be running for years to come. So there is no telling how large your collection will eventually be.

We will try to add at least one, possibly two, new "CR's" to the series as each RB&CC comes out. However, the type of art we require*, naturally, cannot be turned out overnight. We will not be able to include illustrations of these masterpieces here because there are too many. However, you will be seeing smaller versions of some of them in the RB&CC from time to time, because we will be using some of John and Don's RB&CC art for the reproductions too.

*Other artists may submit paintings and drawings, but only the very best will be considered. We repeat, ONLY the very best. So, when you see an artist has had a painting or drawing accepted, you can be sure that artist has turned in an exceptionally fine piece of work. Absolutely no simple line drawings are accepted.

PRICES ARE AS FOLLOWS:

$1.25 each, Two for $2.00, Three for $2.70, Four for $3.20, Over four=70¢ each. If you want your copies mailed first class add 25¢ extra for each "CR" you order.

Send all orders to: THE SFCA, Dept. "CR", 9875 SW. 212 St., MIAMI, FLORIDA 33157

IMPORTANT

NEW ADVERTISING & SUBSCRIPTION RATES FOR THE ROCKET'S BLAST-COMICOLLECTOR !!! EFFECTIVE IMMEDIATELY !!!!

ADVERTISING RATES:
Classified ads (ads containing only written or typed words, no hand lettering or drawings): "REGULAR CLASSIFIED ADS: These are reduced to 1/4 of their original size (this is pretty small but still readable). In other words, a full page ad (submitted in this manner) would occupy 1/4 of a page when printed in the RB&CC. These type ads should be submitted typed (if at all possible) on 8½ x 11 white paper. Type only on a BLACK ribbon that is not worn out. If your typing is too light, your ad will reproduce poorly. Leave a normal margin on all 4 sides. The rate is $4.50 per page. For smaller classified ads, the rate is 10¢ per line (A 7 inch typed line). A SPECIAL NEW CLASSIFIED RATE FOR SMALL ADS. "SPECIAL CLASSIFIED": These will be printed as is (not reduced in size) at the rate of 30¢ per 7 inch typed line. IMPORTANT! On all small classified ads, we can not accept ads of less than 5 lines. Another important note: You can have artwork and/or hand lettering in the above ads.

"25% ADS" (These may contain artwork and/or typing). All ads of this type MUST be submitted on 8½ x 11 paper only. This type ad is reduced to 1/2 of it's original size. In other words, a full page ad submitted at this rate will occupy 1/2 of a page of space when printed in the RB&CC. Allow for normal margins. The rate for "25% ADS" is $8.00 per page.

"SPECIAL ADS" (These may contain artwork and/or typing). These type ads are printed as is, with no reduction in size. Therefore, a full page ad (8½ x 11) submitted at this rate will occupy a full page when printed in the RB&CC. You may also submitt this type ad on larger pages and we will reduce them to 8½ x 11. Such as 17 x 22, or 12½ x 16, ect. The rate is $15.00 per page.

When submitting ads be sure to state what type ad it is. FULL payment must ACCOMPANY ALL ads. Any ads received after any deadline will be run in the following issue WITHOUT EXCEPTION !!
Send all ads and payments to: THE SFCA CIRCULATION 2,000

Ye Olde Fanzine Shop

Ordering Information: We only have a limted supply of all these various fanzines, so if you see something you want, don't wait too long to order it. However, an asterisk (*) after a particular issue means we only have a few copies left, and when ordering any of those, list alternate choices if possible. Obviously, we do not have room to list the contents of each one, however, suffice to say, we will only stock what we consider good fanzines. This does not mean that any we do not stock isn't good, because we cannot, of course, stock them all. If you have a fanzine you would be interested in selling in quantity, drop us a copy along with the lowest price you can sell 50 copies to us for. Send all orders (and sample fanzines) to: Ye Olde Fanzine Shop, 9875 SW 212 St., Miami, Fla. 33157. Make checks and money orders payable to THE SFCA. All fanzines will be mailed flat in heavy envelopes.

EDITORS NOTE:

By now it is obvious that this issue is nearly a month late. The reason being a nagging wrist injury that I just can't seem to shake. This has also delayed everything else: filling zine and tape orders, and work on future projects. But thanks to Bob & Andy Warner and John Ellis, we finally are back on the the track. We have, in fact, hired Andy as Asst. Editor, and any improvements in the overall appearence of the RB&CC from now on can be credited partly to him. Now, for ~~XXX~~ THE BIG. Because Andy will be assisting me here at the SFCA offices, we are going to make an determined effort to put the RB&CC out every 5 to 6 weeks !!! That is why we have (and will) listed two advertising deadlines at the bottom of page 2. Incidently, in order to have any chance at mainting such a strenuous schedules, these deadlines ~~deadlines~~ will be adhered to strictly. Andy is very competent in several areas and is also a budding artist, and is also a hard and dedicated worker. Hopefully, allow me a little more time to devote to several other fanzine projects, including putting THE GOLDEN AGE out at least 3 times a year (possibly 4). It should be pointed out that we will actually be putting out twice as many issues of the RB&CC per year. Therefore, quite probably the amount of non-ad material will probably be reduced somewhat (unless many of you good artists and writers, who are not currently contributing, decided to back us up in this new schedule by sending more material in)~~xxx~~ per issue. However, the total amount per year will be more than it is actually is now. A word to our three regular column writers (Siegel, Miller, and Hauser. Obviously it will be unfair to ask them to continue their columns (at their present size) on such a schedule as we are going attempt. To you three, I would suggest, that you possibly cut your column size in half. If you feel this still won't give you enough time, drop me a note and let me know how you would prefer to work it. A schedule like this ~~w~~ is what everyone has been asking for, but until now, there was just no way. I can't even guarentee you we can do it now, but we are going to give it our best. While it will obviously benefit our advertisers, we ~~fxxx~~ feel it will also pull fandom a little closer.

I just received a call from Don Maris, of the Oklahoma Multicon. It has been confirmed that Buster Crabbe will be at the Multicon on June 18 and 19. Although, you will not see a formal ad for THE GOLDEN AGE #6, in this issue, you can now order it ($1.25) as it will be out before RB&CC #69. Take my word, it will be the best & biggest issue yet (32 pg). Just a few of the features, a fantastic 10 page "Tyzor" strip by another SFCA discovery Jim Alan (utterly beautifull), an article on FAMOUS FUNNIES with art by Jim Jones, a 3 page portfolio by Robert Kline featuring CLUE COMIC heroes, plus other features including several pieces of pro art. Not to mention, a 2-page centerspread by John Richardson.

We are happy to announce, the addition of two more artists to the SFCA staff; Richard Corben (see his poster ad) and pro William Black. We are always looking for art contributions and new artists, which is one reason for our new feature "ARTIST SHOWCASE. Incidently, if Richard Enloe will send me his address I would like to send him my comments on the ~~xxx~~ art he sent us.

The GHOST RIDER "Classic Repro" by Frazetta advertised in this issue, was reproduced from a stat of ~~th~~ the original art itself. If you are a Frazetta collector, don't miss it.

Dear G.B.,

You really can work wonders with your dedication to fandom and your ambition to ever-improve. My respect and admiration go out to you--as well as my ~~xxxpext~~ suport. The dark stock for the cover of RB&CC 67 was very effective to furthermore tone-down the starkly dark Captain America rendition by Richardson. The cover itself, with "The Rocket's Blast - Comicollect" flagged across the upper left corner had a documentary look to ~~th~~ it, reminiscent of TIME or NEWSWEEK, a fitting stroke to compliment Richardson's unique, sombre, beautifully textured version of CA. He gives him the grim appearence of realism that lifts the character from comic book proportions and injects blood and brooding personality into him. Here is a CA capable of doing hand to hand battle with Hitler, the Red Skull, and the host of World War II brutal foes. VERY interesting and enjoyed fully by me.

The rest of the issue was crammed with material it would take weeks to digest, ads of course making up the strong framework of the RB&CC.

Dear G.B.,

What can I say? RB&CC had some of the best art, fan or pro, that I've ever seen. Robert Kline's cover sure was E.C. personified!! What a magnificent piece of art! And the two pieces by John Richardson were very well done also. I Especially liked his painting of the Spectre. It was not the most detailed piece of art I've ever seen, but it was beautifully atmospheric. For the first time, the ghostly quality of the Spectre was finally realized on paper. I am hoping to see more of these two artists in the future, as they are as good as many pros. In other words, get what you can out of them before they turn pro!!

Well, the results on the 1968 Alley Awards are in, and, for a large part I'm disappointed. What happened was that too many Marvel fans answered the plug in the Bullpen pages, and, voting on a straight Marvel ticket, they slanted it unjustly. How else would Sgt Fury beat Enemy Ace by 69 votes? How else would Stan Lee beat Dick Giordano by 185 votes. Granted, in a tally of strictly fandom, Lee still might have won (I voted for Giordano myself), but hardly by such a great margin. Lee also won by a tremendous (150 votes) amount in the best writer category. Of the fans I know, most agree Stan had an off year in '68. Here's another example: Joe Sinnott won best inker by 118 votes over Wally Wood. Granted, Jow did some fine Work with Steranko and on the FF, but 1968 was Wood's year. His return to comics helped rejuvenate the whole DC line. Shouldn't the voting have been a bit closer? That shuck from Lee about 'King' Kirby enabled Jack to finish second in the best artist category---ahead of Neal Adams! I have nothing against Jack- he's a good artist, but not that great. Luckily, talent won out and Jim Steranko won almost everything in sight; best artist, Hall of Fame Award (for Nick Fury), numbers one, two, four, and five of the best covers, fourth in the best writer, numbers four and five in best full length story, numbers one and four in best short story, plus the fact that the charoter Nick Fury finished quite high in several categories due to Steranko. Real talent will out! Mark says next year it'll be a straight fandom vote, which is good. Like you say in the RB&CC; don't be a Marvel fan, don't be a DC fan, but be a comic fan. Look for quality, not Stan Lee's name. I wish more people would think that way when the cast their Alley vote

Thanks for letting me air my views on the 1968 Alley Awards. Continued success to your zine. I especially like Richw Hauser's "EC REVISITED" column.

Dear G.B.,

It's really great to see excellent artwork and well written articles in an adzine! Fantucchio, Newton, and even Richardson are doing tremendous things for fandom, and it's their kind of work more fanzines need. Rich Hauser's article on EC is exceptionally great, and I hope that possibly other companies can be covered to the same extent. I would also like to mention that our MULTICON 70 ad that was in last issue has brought in very favorable success. As for doing 'my thing' for fandom, I am going to try to see that RB&CC gets a plug in every issue of O.A.F. I realize that it isn't much, but every little bit helps. I only hope that other clubs across the nation will do the same in plugging for fans to subscribe to the RB&CC. In closing I would like to add that each issue of the RB&CC gets better, and I'm sure if you keep getting the kind of support you are getting, RB&CC will go a long way!

Dear G.B.,

I have read a few comments lately that RB&CC is sloppy,, poorly put togetherw, etc., etc. Personally, I find RB&CC to be looking the best it ever has and you are doing the best you can. From this point on, RB&CC can only be improved by the fans, mainly the advertisers. Some of the ads sent in are terribly sloppy and downright ugly. A little neat typing would do wonders for the look of the book. So would staying within the set margins (I admit to having hedged in that area before) and a few decent boarders made with a straight edge. I am sure, G.B., you feel disgusted at the appearence of some of the ads you get. I hope you print this or mention it in your commentary. From here, the changes in RB&CC are made by the fans.

GOLDEN AGE COMICS, E.C.'s, D.C.s, MARVELS, CHARLETONS, KING, GOLD KEY, ETC., FOR SALE AT THE SFCA.

Yes, many Golden Age books (CAPT. AMERICA, U.S.A., MARVEL MYSTERY, JACKPOT, COMIC CAVALCADE, AIR FIGHTERS, etc.). We also have one of the largest stocks of E.C. comics in the world (WEIRD FANTASY, WEIRD SCIENCE, INCREDIBLE SCIENCE FICTION, WEIRD SCIENCE-FANTASY, TALES FROM THE CRYPT, HAUNT OF FEAR, TWO FISTED TALES, PIRACY, VALOR, etc.).
Comics with art by FRAZETTA, WILLIAMSON, & WOOD (WHITE INDIAN, GHOST RIDER, WESTERN HEROES, ADVENTURES INTO THE UNKNOWN, JIMMY WAKELY, etc.
Comics of the funny variety (LITTLE LULU, WALT DISNEY, and so on.

We also have, without a doubt, the largest stock of comic and science fiction fan magazines in the World.

The above material is not for sale by mail order (except for the fanzines) but if you are ever in Miami, don't leave without coming out to see me (G.B. Love). This is the only place in Miami where this type material is offered for sale. This is a home not a store, but you are welcomed most any time. We are located about 20 miles south of Miami (in a section called Cutler Ridge) about a mile off to the left of U.S. #1.

We also sell tape recordings of old radio shows. And we also have on display in our office some of the most beautiful pieces of original comic art (both drawings and full color oil paintings) that you will ever see in one place. Work by Newton, Fantucchio, Saunders, White, etc.

Our address is:

THE S.F.C.A. (G.B.LOVE), 9875 S.W. 212 ST., MIAMI, FLA. 33157

(Editor's Note: I would personally like to reccommend the Stor/Files which are advertised below. I use them myself to store my comics and other material and they are ideal. For comic books, I suggest the 25-226 size, as it will accomodate to five inch high stacks, which is quite a few comics. The 25-220 is great for those who collect the WALT DISNEY COMIC DIGEST, as it will accomodate (very nicely) two stacks (with 5 in each stack). And for you newspaper strip collectors, the 25-228 is absolutely ideal !)

"MIAMICON, DEC. 1969: A LOOK AT SOUTHERN FLORIDA'S FIRST COMICON" by Jon Ellis

I ARRIVED AT ANDY WARNER'S (ANDY IS CHAIRMAN OF THE SOTHERN FLORIDA COMIC COUNCIL) HOUSE AT ABOUT 11 O'CLOCK, SATURDAY, DEC. 27th. WE WERE JUST IN TIME TO WATCH ANDY COMPLETE A PAINTING, AND THEN WE WERE OFF. WE STOPPED BY IDEAL PICTURES, INC. TO PICK UP "THE GOOD HUMOR MAN" MOVIE, WHICH REVOLVES AROUND A CAPTAIN MARVEL CLUB. AFTER THAT WE HASTENED TO THE MEETING PLACE, AT WHICH ANDY AND I KICKED OUT THE LITTLE CLIQUE OF FOLLOWERS WHICH WE HAD PICKED UP ALONG THE WAY. THEN WE WENT OVER TO GORDON LOVE'S HOUSE, WHICH TAKES ABOUT AN HOUR, ROUND TRIP. THINGS HAD GONE AWRY FOR US THAT DAY. FIRST, WE LOST A HUBCAP, AND ALMOST LOST THE REST OF THE MATCHED SET. THEN WE GOT THE CAR STUCK IN SECOND GEAR (WHICH DOESN'T WORK, I MIGHT ADD) AND FINALLY GOT IT BACK INTO FIRST AFTER ABOUT TEN MINUTES. IF WE HADN'T NAILED DOWN THE HOOD, THE SQUIRRELS THAT POWER THE CAR WOULD HAVE ESCAPED, TOO. AFTER WE ARRIVED AT G. B. LOVE'S HOUSE, THINGS DID START TO CLEAR UP. WE FINALLY GOT BACK TO THE MEETING PLACE, AND SAW THAT THINGS WERE GOING ALONG NICELY. ABOUT 29 PEOPLE HAD ARRIVED WHEN WE SETTLED DOWN, AND VIEWED THE FIRST HALF OF THE MOVIE. AS THE SECOND PART OF THE MOVIE WAS LOADED ONTO THE PROJECTOR, I DISCOVERED THAT CHARLES C. BECK, OUR GUEST OF HONOR, HAD ARRIVED. AFTER THE MOVIE WAS OVER, EVERYONE HAD CROWDED AROUND MR. BECK IN AMAZEMENT. AFTER A SMALL AUTOGRAPHING SESSION, MR. BECK WAS FORMERLY INTRODUCED, HE GAVE A LENGTHY TALK SESSION. I ONLY NOW WISH THAT I HAD TAPED IT, BECAUSE IT WAS THE MOST THOROUGH AND INFORMATIVE EXPLANATION OF CAPTAIN MARVEL AND FAWCETT THAT I HAVE EVER HEARD (OR READ, FOR THAT MATTER). BEFORE THE END OF HIS SPEECH, TO THE AMAZEMENT OF EVERYONE, HE THEN, BEFORE OUR VERY EYES, INKED FOUR SKETCHES OF FAWCETT CHARACTERS. AMONG THEM WERE CAPTAIN MARVEL (G. B. NOW OWNS THAT), MR. MIND (I HAVE THAT IN MY VERY PROUD POSSESSION), AND BILLY BATSON & DR. SIVANA (WHICH NOW BELONG TO GARY BROWN). AFTER MR. BECK COMPLETED THE DRAWINGS, HE DONATED THEM TO THE CLUB, WHICH IN TURN AUCTIONED THEM OFF. AFTER THIS, THERE WAS A BUYING AND TRADING AND SELLING PERIOD UNTIL 80'CLOCK. THEN EVERONE PACKED UP, AND TRUDGED HOME. WE ALL BELIEVE THIS WAS A VERY GOOD TURN OUT, EVEN THOUGH IT WASN'T VERY BIG. BUT LOOK AT THE NEW YORK CON...IT STARTED OUT VERY MUCH LIKE OURS, IN 1964, BUT NOW, AFTER A FEW YEARS, IT IS A FANTASTIC GATHERING OF FANS.0

THE SOUTHERN FLORIDA COMIC COUCIL HAS MEETINGS EVERY MONTH AND A CONVENTION EVERY THIRD MONTH. THE NEXT CONVENTION WILL BE HELD APRIL 1, 1970 A WEDNESDAY DURING EASTER VACATION. FOR FURTHER INFORMATION, SEND A STAMPED, SELF-ADDRESSED ENVELOPE TO ANDREW WARNER, 2250 S.W. 28th STREET, MIAMI, FLORIDA 33133.

THE SAVAGE EARTH
"MISSLE OF DEATH"
IN A MOMENT OF UNCONTROLED RAGE; DESTRUCTON FIRES HIS DEATH RAY AT KIRK CONRAD.
AT THE SAME INSTANT, DR. ARGON, WHO MANAGED TO ELUDE THE INFERNOCS, IS IN FLIGHT ABOARD HIS SOLOR ROCKET.
WONDERING WHY HIS FRIENDS HAVE NOT EXITED THE CAVE, HE TUNES IN FREEZE'S COMMUNICATION LOCKET TO HEAR....
DEAD! YOU KILLED HIM!
TAKE THAT MAN PRISONER, YOU DOGS!
THE DEATH OF YOUR FRIEND LEAVES ME WITHOUT A TRANSPLANT SUBJECT. MOST UNFORTUNATE! LET'S SEE; ABOUT 5'11", 175 LBS, OBVIOUS EYE DEFECT! NOT AS FORMIDABLE A PHYSICAL SPECIMEN AS YOUR COMPANION, BUT YOU'LL DO. WHEN MY MEN RETURN DR. ARGON, IT IS YOU WHO SHALL HOUSE THE BRAIN OF DESTRUCTON!
DAD!.... NOT KIRK! IT CAN'T HAVE HAPPENED!
SAVE THE TEARS BOY! LET'S JUST THINK OF ONE THING RIGHT NOW; HELPING ALAN. WE CAN'T RISK RE-ENTERING THE CAVES... BUT THERE'S A WAY ... A LONG SHOT...!
GET TO THE TARGET FINDER SCREEN, DESTRUCTON'S SOLOR TOWER IS IN THE MOUTH OF THE VOLCANO. "LOCK ON" FOR A MAGNETIC MISSLE AT 1000 YARDS
I JUST HOPE ALAN KEEPS HIS HEAD IN THESE NEXT FEW SECONDS!

PRISTINE EXPLAINS THAT THE GIANT MEN HAVE ENSLAVED MANY APE-MEN TO BUILD ROCK RAMPARTS AGAINST LAVA EROSION MENACING THE FLAME CITY
25

No Attempt will be made to describe this magazine SILVER STARR by Stanley Pitt (published by George Henderson.) If you liked Flash Gordon by Alex Raymond then you will love this giant 80 page strip. We feel the few panels shown here speak (very loudly) for themselves. I repeat; this book is comprised of art like that shown here and an incredibly 80 pages of it!!! What else can we say?

comic collectors comments

BY HOWARD P. SIEGEL

FANDOM PROFILE #3.......spotlights this issue MIKE NOLAN. A much traveled, much studied student of comics, author of four excellent indexes, and a major contributor to fandom. In other words, a worthy subject for profiling. Mike's personal data is so interesting that it commands first spot. He's a 22 year old, single resident of San Jose, Calif., whose athletic background includes coaching football; basketball and baseball in high school. Mike is working toward his BA at San Jose State College while being a staff writer in the sports dept. (naturally) of the San Jose Mercury (morning) and San Jose News (evening) newspapers.

Mike's second love is traveling. This year he's added 13,000 miles to his record, visiting dealers and leading collectors across the country this summer. In other words,....he'd walk a mile for a comic !

When he had ads published in RB-CC several years ago requesting information on various publishing houses, Mike gave me an inking that he was up to something. With pleasure I reviewed his comic indexes, marveling at the accuracy and detailed information each contained. A monumental amount of research, time, sweat and effort went into each of them, and there had to be a reason. And here it is :......"I felt there was a need in fandom for complete and reliable data on old magazines. When I started collecting GA comics in 1964, I was completely in the dark as to info. But within a few years I began acquiring data which I systematically filed and used for reference. The whole idea behind my thinking was simple. If GA comics were going to cost so much, I wanted only the best, and not buy by guesswork......". So what began as a personal effort to make his dollar serve him best led Mike into a large data file which he decided to make available to others. This unselfish act has probably saved many collectors a lot of hard work and time.

Mike's favorite haunts (make notes you West Coasters) are the Los Angeles book stores such as Collectors and Cherokee.....who he claims have over 40,000 GA comics available between them. Mike also has a host of friends that have made their collections available to him, and he openly advises that Ray Miller gave him the encouragement to undertake his Index Series. Mike contends that he has probably seen more GA comics than anyone else, having spent some time in DC's comic library, as an example. His personal collection is about 1000 GA comics consisting of over 230 different super hero and adventure titles. His favorites are Green Lantern, Flash Gordon and Nedor's Doc Strange.....and Doc Savage in the pulps. He especially likes patriotic costumes, and once wrote me that since this was his specialty he did not think it fair to enter my red-white-blue quiz in a previous issue. Since no one responded Mike....perhaps there is a need for such a listing. Bear this in mind the next time you're looking for a new project.

Mike's opinion of the comic industry today ? Like many of us, he's not too happy about it. Mike said : "The sense of wonder seems to be gone. I don't like sociology in every comic, nor a plethora of costumed super villians. I'm not really "down" on all comics - some darn good art and stories have been produced......".

And there you have it. Next issue....are you ready ? This is like getting Howard Hughes to confess. G.B. LOVE AND THE S.F.C.A. !!!! The profile of the man behind the organization behind the world's largest comic fanzines and adzine.......

DID JACK KIRBY.....ever draw Spiderman ? Don't bother checking your Marvel collection. One of the "King's" recent efforts since moving to the West Coast was a poster entitled "Be A Super Hero" for the U.S. Marine Corps. Toys For Tots campaign. A special ad appearing only in the toy industry trade journels shows Cap., Thor & Spidey handing gifts to a group of kids. I have had 24 copies made by Xerox of the ad, which I will give free to the first 24 sending me a S.A.S.E. with the words "Kirby Poster" written on the envelope. Remember, you are taking the risk of having your envelope returned empty if an avalanche of requests come in and yours is not among the first. IT's my contribution to fandom (okay G.B. ?).....

WHO ARE......Bessy, Fix und Fox & Micky Maus ? Germany's names for Lassie, Fox and Crow and Mickey Mouse comic book titles. They are the most popular in that country saleswise.

MAKE UP !.....tinted faces...Spectre, Manhunter (Adventure Comics), Mr. Justice, Vision (both), J'onn J'onnz, Destroyer (Marvel), Man O' Metal.....know of any others ?

IF YOU THINK......Metal Men and Iron Man are the first titles to have metal like letters with rivet studs you're wrong ! Check an old issue of Planet Comics....

NEW COVER FORMAT.....of JLA is reminiscent of those GA layouts where the left side of the cover was devoted to closeups of the secondary features. I personally like it, but Mike Vosburg must be pretty angry that Hawkman was left out......

FOR THE COMPLETIST......Toys & Novelties Magazine, April 15, 1966. A complete issue devoted to the Batman TV merchandising craze, starting with a cover by Murphy Anderson. It is replete with an index of Batman toys and other merchandise, articles, DC pictures, etc. I don't know if any of these trade journals are available, but if you're interested contact Haire Publications, 111 Fourth Avenue, New York 10003.......

THE CROSSBOW.....one of the deadliest weapons conceived by man. When Speedy pulled out his miniature weapon in Teen Titans No. 25, it was the first time I had seen a costumed super hero use the crossbow since Swiftarrow (Golden Lad Comics)........

SIMILARITY........All Star #42, "The Man Who Hated Science" and JLA

#6, "The Wheel Of Misfortune". Both had the super hero team members strapped to a whirling device. In the case of the GA mag, it was a pinwheel of steel propellors; in the JLA version it was a wheel of fortune. In both cases the villian was watching with an evil grin on his face.....right Jerry ?

LOOK ALIKES......Green Lantern's arch foe Hector Hammond and The Hulk's nemesis The Leader.........

IF YOU THINK......the name Capt. America is as jazzy as you can get in patriotism, how about Capt. U.S.A. ? He appeared in Charlton's Premier #3..........

IN REVIEWING.....a copy of Marvel's USA Comics, several interesting things stood out in my mind regarding this all superh ero title. First, Capt. Terror looked rather rediculous wearing a bib. Basil Wolverton's rendition of a super-hero (Rockman, USA) was interesting; and I noted that one character was drafted and immediately was elevated to field level rank. I'm referring to Major Liberty who was Mr. Liberty an issue previous.........

DO YOU REMEMBER......those ads DC had in their titles showing My Greatest Adventure, Mystery In Space and House of Secrets as part of their first line publications ???? When Chic Stone inked Kirby's pencils for Marvel ???? When everyone thought the title layout of Cave Carson's Inside Earth covers for Brave & Bold and Showcase were great ???? When Fantasy Masterpieces #3 caused collectors to envision GA reprints for years to come ???? When we waited anxiously for the 2nd and 3rd issues of Fighting American and Spirit to come out on the newstands ???? Wonder Woman's amazon family....Aquaman's water sprite pal Quist....Doom Patrol's arch enemy Gen. Immortus....DO YOU REMEMBER ????

THE BIG QUIZ.......for this issue is another match the super villian with his alter ego name....this time from DC titles :

1. Mr. Tic Tac Toe
2. Sonar
3. The Separated Man
4. Ocean Master
5. Getaway Master
6. Weather Wizard
7. Animal-Veg-Mineral Menace
8. Proteus
9. Shadow Thief
10. Matter Master
11. Chronos
12. Mr. Memory

A. Dr. Bradford
B. Sven Larsen
C. Amos Fortube
D. Rip Cord
E. Jake Trask
F. Carl Sands
G. Orm Curry
H. David Clinton
I. Bito Weadon
J. Monty Moran
K. Mark Mardon
L. Mark Mandrill

The first six winners get 12 comic envelopes. Deadline, as usual, is the date listed in the front for ads....so start checking through your DC collection...........

HOW OFTEN.......have you detected certain ploys of artists and publishers. For instance.....STEVE DITKO likes to vaporize or mentally materialize the costumes onto his heroes, such as The Question, Hawk and Dove, Creeper....Simon and Kirby had a favorite costume pattern as noted by the basic similarity of Manhunter, Guardian, Sandman.....Timely liked striped leotards; Destroyer, Defender....and cover scenes of full scale battle into which the hero pitched himself with seeming immunity to bombs, bullets and overwelming odds....as covers of Capt. America and Young Allies will show....and finally, EC strongly believed that every planet other than earth, regardless of the universe it was located in, was in its early period of development where flora and fauna were primordal and the Paleozoic Age reigned........ other analysis are welcome.........

GREAT SCENES OF THE PRESENT......Aquaman #49-pgs. 1 & 2....Green Lantern #74-pgs. 13 & 14.....Avengers #72-pgs. 12 & 13 !!

AND NOW......the mail department :

Thanks to F.L. WATKINS of Mason City, Ill. for the newspaper article revealing the fact that there is a real Doc Savage, and for posing a good question which I myself tried to get an answer to. DC never made it clear whether the revived Spectre was Earth I or Earth II based. His appearances in Showcase, Brave & Bold and his own mag contained much conflicting info on the subject. I wrote to DC specifically on this point but never got an answer...

COLLIN LAU sent this information stateside ; or I should say to the "mainland" from Hawaii : On a recent Mike Douglas, the "Amazing Kreskin", famous magician and clairvoyant advised that he was first influenced by a Mandrake comic mag when he was 4½ years old....and from there took the road to magical fame........

MARK BERNSTEIN of Jersey City, N.J. offer and interesting comparison between Fawcett's Capt. Marvel and Super Green Beret, both creations of the team of C.C. Beck and Otto Binder - almost two decades apart. Both were teenagers who became fighting heroes by means of some mystical transformation. Both got their powers through elderly appearing seers. Both wore red sweaters and blue pants. Both were seemingly helpless individuals in their everyday identities........

A LETTER FROM ROY THOMAS !! Marvel's second in command took the time to comment on my year end report. His letter had several interesting pieces of information which command unlimited space. I hope the news is not outdated by the time this issue is received by you readers. The parts in parenthesis are my own. Here goes : X-Men is being cancelled because of poor sales - Capt. Marvel is being revived into regular circulation because issues 17-19 were blockbusters. (This kills the purist in me ! Since Neal Adams teamed up with Roy on the X-Men, it has become one of Marvels top-notch presentations. Can you deny that Sauron, Magneto in the land of Ka-Zar,'The Space Slaves and return of Professor X have not been first rate efforts ? Maybe I'm wrong about Capt. Marvel in the sense that several generations have been born since a teen-ager said the magic word and a super hero emerged from a magical heaven and Fawcett gave us the original product. The newest group of readers are unaware that the Rick-Jones-Mar-Vell bit is old hat to old timers and young collectors.)

ALTER EGO is at the printers (this is being typed December 15th) and will be on its way to subscribers very soon. A word on this : when a pro takes time to put out an extra curricular effort for fandom you can bet that every page is a masterpiece. He has the friendship of many artists and writers. They gladly present their best efforts, because it's easier to produce a few pages or one pin-up in extra fine technique when no deadline or multi-page production assignment is hanging over their heads. A perfect example is Wally Wood's Witzend. In a few years it will be as cherished and valueable as FF #1 was five years after it came out. So invest in Roy's revival.....ALTER EGO is worth it ! Besides, Roy has a side bet with Stan the Man (2 lbs. of sour balls) that AE will outsell Not Brand Echh this year.........

QUIZ TIME ANSWERS : the solution to ROB MAISCH's Marvel super-hero-villian- alter ego quiz: 1-I, 2-L, 3-B, 4-F, 5-H, 6-K, 7-M, 8-D, 9-A, 10-J, 11-E, 12-C, 13-G. In preparing next issues and this issue similar quizes, I can tell you that it takes a goodly bit of reasearch to come up with the answers, so conratulations to the following winners, who really worked for their comic envelopes :

ROB GERSTENHABER of Fresh Meadows, N.Y. - GARY SPIEWAK of Clark, N.J. - ALLEN JAY - San Francisco, Calif. - RODNEY GOODELLE, Syracuse, N.Y. - LARRY BRNICKY, Gary, Indiana - JIM RHODEOS, Phoenix, Ariz. - BOBBY CRAIN - Baton Rouge, La. - LARRY BECKER, Minneapolis, Minn. - DOUG JONES (a double winner for naming the MLJ quiz correctly as well), Versailles, Ky. Although I indicated in the last issue that the first six correct replies would be considered winners, I felt that it would be unfair to eliminate any later entries because some time must have been spent researching the answers. I'll also honor any more that come in before January 1st, since I realize some of us get our RB-CC's before others who may be further down the alphabet.......

TONY BALTULIS, Windsor, Ontario, Canada also sent in a correct list of costumed heros that did not appear in the Mighty Crusaders #4 from the MLJ Golden Age roster. I'm waiting for ten more contestants who'll get the Marvel mini-pennants (changed from the comic envelopes originally offered as the prize)........

MISCELLANEOUS DEPT........odd notes and personal thoughts......

First, I'd like to announce that business activities prevents me from answering the contest replies quickly. In order to assure winners of getting their prizes quickly, I have engaged some top notch help in the person of my son Jeff, who has promised same day service. The winners this issue each received a note of congratulations from him, so don't be confused by the change fellers. If you're sending in answers therefore, please address them to JEFFREY SIEGEL (same address). I'll continue to handle the article contributions and any other correspondance..........

Memo to Richard Adams, Laurel, Md. Dick; if you check my original column in RB-CC #61, you'll note that there, and the first CCC in #62 I state that this column will play heavily on interesting trivia............

Postscript to the year end report in last issue : "Revival".....Black Canary, Vigilante, Wildcat....the "old" Batman.....will it continue out of DC ??? I hope so !!!

My compliments to Mike Robertson for his ad on page 73 of last issue. The depiction of an object going through a space warp,(in this case a space ship) was one of the best I have ever seen.......

WORLD OF BIZZARO.......excerpts from their "Courtyard Awards" :

Best New Title : Brother Power, The Geek.
Most Original Theme In A New Title : Secret Six.
Most Disappointing Change : The New Wonder Woman.
Most Startling Change In A Continuous Character : Goliath II changes his leotards and hood mask from blue to red.
Most Expected Innovation : Professor X is alive and well and returns to the X-Men !
Least Likely To Succeed : Strange Adventures with Adam Strange and the Atomic Knights.

AFTERWORD......the second newspaper strip quiz is still being put into abeyance as a reserve item. Too many people said it was too easy and the mail indicates that such as the super-villian idea is preferred......

COMING NEXT ISSUE.....as stated above, Fandom Profile #4; a super villian quiz covering a potpuori of publishers including Tower, Charlton and MLJ; a definition of the makeup of fandom and your comments.

All the following comics are in at least "very good" condition; the majority are in near mint or mint. By "very good," I mean that these comics are clean, solid shape, with tight covers and only minor signs of wear, discoloration, marks on covers, etc. There is no crud here. I'm picky about the condition of my own comics, and I expect people who buy from me to feel the same way; in fact, many of these comics were in my own collection until I decided to reduce it to manageable size. Comics not in very good or better condition are marked G-good or F-fair.

TERMS: Check or money order preferred. Prices are per each. Add 50 cents on orders under $5, or I'll deduct it. Look for refund envelopes in your packages. Add 20 cents for insurance on orders under $10. Please list alternates, preferably lots of them. I'll deduct postage from an order over $5 if most of the items are sold and no alternates are listed. Otherwise, as I've discovered to my sorrow, I can easily lose money.

COMIC BOOKS TO SELL: DONALD WHYTE 785 RICHMOND AVE. BUFFALO, N. Y. 14222

Many thanks for the excellent response to my previous ads. This method of grading and selling comic books has worked out very satisfactorily for the collector and myself. I now have over 20,000 Comic Books, a majority in B & C Condition, and a good selection of MARVELS in A Condition. I also have many Comic Books before 1960 and some GOLDEN AGE. PLEASE INQUIRE.

LISTED BELOW IS MY COMIC BOOK CONDITION CLASSIFICATION METHOD

GROUP A (Mint-Excellent) These are for the serious Comic Book Collector and are in mint to near mint condition. Prices are above average because of condition and scarcity. For the serious Comic Book Collector.

GROUP B (Excellent- Good) Books are in very good condition but may show signs of handling & wear, such as a slightly worn binding; creases on cover or pages; very small nicks or tears on cover or pages. A very fine comic book and at a reasonable price.

GROUP C (Good- Fair) These Comic Books may have torn and/ or taped covers or pages; binding maybe worn, ragged, or taped; center fold maybe loose or not completely stapled; and cover or pages maybe slightly soiled or defaced. Comic Book is complete with the price below average.

GROUP D (Fair- Poor) Covers and/ or pages maybe loose; staples maybe loose or missing; covers and/ or pages maybe torn, cut, patched, or ripped; and parts or the complete [illegible]er and/ or pages maybe missing (so stated). Comic Book complete (except where so stated) and prices are very low.

The PRICE LIST below provides the price of the Comic Book as referenced to the Publisher, Year & Condition. Double price for the 25¢ (list price) books. These prices generally apply to the Superhero type, therefore other types will sell for lower prices. Prices for #1, special issues, and before 1960 are higher than listed.

Now is your chance to obtain the first issue of a fanzine that is destined for long life and ever-growing quality. 7:38 is the title of this myriad of ideas which matured into a journal constructed of 80 lb. bond interior and cardstock cover. The fore-mentioned zine is completely offset and utilizes crisp and clear photographic backgrounds. There are photos galore as well as full page pinups and other half and quarter page drawings distributed throughout 7:38. It features a non-stapled centerfold of Madame Hydra (cardstock) and a continued cover. Issue number one contains articles including "Have Comics Regained Their Dignity?", which involves cover reproductions of Golden Age comics as well as Spiderman #1, and "Are Comics Worth The Higher Price?", an article expressing both pro and con of the subject. The fictional story for this issue is entitled "Rebirth Syndrome" and its ending was designed to leave you hanging. 7:38 number one will also house the first segment of "Things To Ponder On", a section that differs from the normal boundries of the fanzine field. It deals with the serious matters that plagueing our world today as well as bizarre and contemplative concepts. It is my hope that this category will be the forerunner of a new dimension in fandom. Also included is an editorial on Stan Lee's views in his "Stan's Soapbox", a portfolio of 2001 photos (no, not another review on 2001, just pictures), plus much more. All of these features are incased in a wrap-around bound- 8½x11 fanzine that is sure to satisfy your visions of a superlative magazine that is devoted to fandom in general. Order yours from:

COMPLETE GOLDEN AGE TIMELY-MARVEL & MLJ COMIC BOOK INDEXES

After almost five years of research, complete issue by issue indexes of all Golden Age Timely-Marvel (1939-1955) and MLJ (1939-1947) comics are now in print for the first time in fandom's history. About 275 fans have already ordered these indexes and the [redacted] supply is definitely limited. I had only 500 of each printed because of high printing costs.

Both the Timely and MLJ indexes list each and every super hero comic published by those famed firms during the Golden Age of Comics ... and they index the comics individually. Issue #'s, dates, characters, story titles and page lengths are given for all the great costume hero adventure classics published by Timely and MLJ, two of the leaders in the field. This has never been done before.

In addition, there are general indexesand cross-reference super hero indexes -- plus plenty of notes explaining oddities, number mixups, and other problems facing the collector. There also are special text sections devoted to collecting Timely and MLJ. Both indexes are photo offset, highly readable, with beautiful covers by Rudy Franke, one of fandom's leading artists. These indexes have been a special project for a long time and I've doneall I could to make them loaded with information.

Perfect for the collector -- you need neverhave doubts while buying your comics. Know what you are going to buy -- know what you want to collect -- systematically. Don't guess!

The price, as always, is $1.25 for the Timely Index and [redacted] $1.00 for the MLJ Index. Or, better yet, order them both for $2.00, passing along postage and envelope savings costs to you.

Also still available -- a few [redacted] more copies of the original Golden Age Super Hero Index -- a general listing of the super heroes of the nine leading G.A. companies. There aren't many of this one left, so I would advise a prompt order. It won't be reprinted. Price -- 60¢.

Plus -- the Nedor Comic Index -- identical in format to the Timely and MLJ indexes listed above, the Nedor Index lists each and every super hero comic published by Better Publications, one of the most underrated of all Golden Age publishers. Again, with a pretty cover by Franke, the price is 75¢.

When ordering, please enclose 15¢ extra per index if you want first class postage -- and thanks for the continuing response. With luck, coming fairly soon will be a complete 1940-43 Fawcett Guide.

#1 IS NOW ON SALE. ONLY 25¢ FOR 24 PAGES OF PHOTO-OFFSET, INCLUDING TWO, FOUR COLOR COVERS. MAIN FEATURES ARE:

QUARTERSTAFF! A great new concept in action heroes by Curt Shoultz. Unique treatment

SPECTRA 13. A Star Trek type strip with a difference. This strip at no time concerns earth. A wild story by Bill Magdowski.

CAPTAIN SOLAR. A humorous comic by PROS. Quite a strip, hilarious.

X THE UNKNOWN FACTOR. It was inevitable, a baddie who fights for fun and a thoroughly confused hero who winds up winning but causing an even greater danger Not a bad story by Yaco.

All this plus "Are Comic Digests Becoming Popular?", an article by Dan Brown and several illustrations by Collin Lau, Bob Cosgrove, Harry R. Limbert, Christopher Jay Gubelman, Fred Hembeck and Mark Ammerman. Mailed in an envelope Order from:

The Carolina Fan Federation, centered in the NC-SC area, is a service type organization for fans of everything from s-f and comics to movies, [illegible] to [illegible]. Our main objective is to promote togetherness among fans from this area and keep everybody in fandom. Being an area of relative[illegible] inactivity we need something like this to stir things up. We put out an irregular newsletter to keep everyone up on all of the latest developements and serve as an introduction to fandom for the neo-fan. We have no dues and the only requirement for membership besides residence is a show of interest. Our semi-reguler mini-cons are highlighted by displays of original art and rare comics and s-f material, meeting other fans, and an occasional pro. Our last meeting featured Manly Wade Wellman, noted s-f and golden age comic book author. The next few mini-cons are scheduled March 22, June 7, July 12, and September 6. They are held here in [illegible] to attract fans from the coast to the mountains. For more info [illegible]

POGO FANS

We have an excellent set of POGO Sunday thirds for bid. There are 219 in the lot with 189 of these coming from 1955-1960 and the rest from the early sixties. 1956 is complete and there are 45 from 1958. They will only be sold as a lot and the starting bid is $40. A few are damaged but most are in good condition. A good buy. ELK

JANE ARDEN

Over 180 Jane Arden Sunday thirds from the fifties plus Off The Record thirds as a bonus. These were mostly on the same page as the POGOS so there are some good periods. This lot is up for bid with a minimum bid of $10. ELK

Robert Starnes, 4321 Holly Spring Rd, Raleigh, NC 27606 He has some comics for sale from the past five or so years and isn't asking much for them. Most companies are represented. Some good items.

Edwin Murray, 2540 Chapel Hill Rd, Durham, NC 27707 I am in dire need of PRINCE VALIANT halves and ON STAGE Sundays. I want ON STAGE between 1960-1965 plus a few before and most dailies before 1965. Send for VAL want list. Willing to pay 20¢-30¢ for those since 1950.

Yance Parrish, 1906 Glendale, Durham, NC 27701 He has many comics, mostly Marvels, from the early and mid sixties that he would like to trade for Nationals from the same period or before. Several rare first issues.

BEWARE

John [illegible]zziotta, 8523 Mt. Scott, El Paso, Texas 79904 recently cheated me out of $50 worth of original art that I sent him in a trade. Three months and several letters later it appears that he never intended to send me anything.

WILD, NEW ADVENTURE LP RECORDS

THese 33 1/3 long playing records are put out by MGM. They are NOT "camped up" versions but are fine records featuring regular adventure stories. Any serious comic collector will be proud to add these to his collection. Each record has a playing time of 40 to 45 minutes. The price is $3.00 each or if you order all 6, the price is only $16.00 (a $2.00 savings). WE pay all postage and shipping cost.

"THE OFFICIAL ADVENTURES OF FLASH GORDON." 2 episodes.
"THE OFFICIAL ADVENTURES OF THE GREEN HORNET." 2 episodes.

THE ROCKET'S BLAST

Special number 7

SFCA

THE END OF AN ERA

THIS IS THE ONE ALL OF YOU E.C. FAN-ANTICS HAVE BEEN WAITING FOR

William Parente (professional writer and editor) takes an indepth look at the old E.C. line. He explores and discusses it's faults and weaknesses, but more importantly, he tells why E.C. has never been matched for pure quality. Along with Bill's fine feature-length article, R.B. SPECIAL #7 contains reproductions of E.C. art by Wally Wood, Joe Orlando, Roy Krenkel, Jack Davis, and Al Williamson. Plus a photo of Wally Wood. To top it off, we managed to have pro artist John Fantucchio draw a beautiful 7-color front cover for this issue and believe me, it is in the TRUE EC tradition. And the back cover, also in full color, is by Buddy Saunders, one of fandom's best.

For each copy of THE ROCKET'S BLAST SPECAIL #7 you want, send 75¢ to:

FANDOM FIRST ISSUE ANNUAL

MLJ LEADS THE WAY!

by HOWARD KELTNER

THE HISTORY OF FLASH COMICS

BY PAUL GAMBACCINI

An Interview With HARVEY KURTZMAN

by Bill Spicer

GIFT COMICS

BY RICK WEINGROFF

Do you think $2.50 is too much for a fanzine ?? Well, read on and we'll change your mind. Aside from the articles listed at the left, here are some more in FANDOM ANNUAL #1: "Hall Of Infamy" by L.L. Simpson, "The Nedor Comics Group" by Marty Arbunich, "Supersnipe" by Tom Fagan, "Pocket Size Comics" by Raymond Miller, and these are all full length articles written by fandom's best and all are fully illustrated, many with actual scenes from the strips themselves.
But that's not all. Cover repros: Over 25 !! Three "Hall Of Fame" Pin-ups by Biljo White, "Scenes From The Golden Age" featuring Rocket Man and Rocket Girl, A capsule History of WEIRD SCIENCE by Bill Spicer, plus several other features, including, "Four For The Price", "Comics Collector," "A Comeback For Comic Books." And this is all topped off by beautiful full color front and back covers by John Fantucchio and Buddy Saunders(one of Buddy's best pieces of art ever). This fanzine (with wrap around binding) is printed on heavy 80 pound paper with the covers on extra heavy 120 pound slick paper. It was made to last a life-time.
The original price was $2.25 but because we only have a limited quantity left, the price is now $2.50. And if you still think that's too much, just ask some one who owns a copy. When the copies we have are gone, there will DEFFINITELY be no more [illegible] printed up. Hopefully, we will put out a second issue sometime in the future, but once these copies of #1 are gone, that is it. So don't wait, thinking you can always order a copy when you want it, because one of these days they will be gone.

Send $2.50 for each copy you want to:

INFORMATION CENTER

What better way to start this issue's column then with some EC Oddities from Neil Neches....In most EC comics (all I've seen) there was a lead story of eight pages, followed by three six or seven page stories. But in Incredible Science Fiction #32, the lead story was six pages followed by an eight pager. In Incredible #33 a story called "Mutant" was to appear. However, it was turned down by the code and "Judgement Day" was reprinted. The mutant story by Torres was turned down because the mutant had a third eye. Here is the Oddity. Only five years later a Superman story was published where he had an eye in the back of his head. Vault of Horror #33 had a cover by Johnny Craig but a lead story by Crandall. Johnny Craig did the lead for every issue of Vault but his art is missing in this issue. The house ad for Vault of Horror #32 in Crypt #37 showed a man coming into a room with an axe in his head. On the actual cover, the axe is missing, otherwise the cover is exactly the same.

And a question from Neil: Is the writer whose stories appear in Alfred Hitchcock Mystery Mag, and calls himself Johnathan Craig, the EC artist?
Could be, but I doubt it.

Bobby Crais wants to know in which issue of what EC title did the gorey baseball game appear in?
Neil Neches tells us this story was in Haunt of Fear #19. The baseball game with a dismembered man used as equipment. This story as well as the hanging man cover from Crime Suspenstories #20 and the woman stabbing her husband in the navel, from Weird Science #19 were used in "Seduction of the Innocent".

Mark Bernstein says he is sorry if he gave us the wrong info on the Yellow Kid Comic being the first comic book. Andrew Zerbe (#66) says no, that that book had no strips in it. Now who is right because more then Mark told me it did have strips. Were there two different Yellow Kid books? Mark also says there were 11 issues of Saddle Romances put out by EC and it became Weird Science with #12.

Does anyone know the address of Lynn Meyers Jr.,who is publishing the Doc Savage Journal? Cary Liniger would like to have it.

Carl Hopkins has these two questions:

1. What was the number of the Capt. Marvel Comic book that had a big hand across the cover and the hand had an eraser and was erasing Capt. Marvel? (Note: See page 9).

2. What was the number and date of the last Capt. Marvel comic? The number was #150 and the date was Nov.1953.

In #66 Michael Byrne asked about "Billy Bantam". George Schwartz and Jerome Sinkovec say " Fawcett's Funny Animals had a comic character called Battling Bantam. He was a rooster in issue #56. In #69 Feb. 1951 he is called Bobby Bantam. The same holds for #82. He's not costumed or a hero. He can also be found in issues of Animal Fair.

Correction: Steve Foster and Craig Battmer say the Doc Savage paperback "Brand of the Werewolf" cover was not done by Wood but by an artist named M. Kinstler.

Concerning the question asked by Mark DerMarderosian and Neil Pozner as to who did the covers of the Avengers and Capt. America paperbacks, Jay and Craig Battmer say they were by Mitchell Hooks.

Nuel Douglas Windrow has these questions: I take it you are new to fandom Nuel?

1. was the "old" Angel different from the "new" Angel of the X-Men? Who was the "old" Angel?
The old Angel was more like Batman. He had no powers nor secret identity nor did he wear a mask. In costume or out he was still the Angel. He was in All Winners #1, the second series of Mystic Comics in 1944 (1-3), Sub-Mariner 1-21 and Marvel Mystery 1-79.

2. Who were the members of the All Winners Squad?
They were Capt. America, Human Torch, Bucky, Toro, Sub-Mariner, Miss America and The Whizzer. The Squad were only in All Winners 19 and 21. There was no #20. Both are quite expensive but you might pick up the reprints in Fantasy Masterpieces #10 which reprints all of A.W.#19 and Marvel Super-Heroes #17 and 18 which reprints #21 in two parts.
3. Was Capt. Marvel Jr. the son of the Golden Age Capt. Marvel? Mary Marvel was CM'S wife? Marvel Family were CM, Jr. and Mary?
You are new! Capt. Marvel came first and was really young station WHIZ newscaster Billy Batson. Next came Capt.Marvel Jr. who was really crippled newsboy Freddy Freeman and no kin of Billys and last was Mary Marvel who was really Mary Batson, sister of Billy. Yes the three were the Marvel Family.
4. Who were the two heroes on the cover of Golden Age #3?
They were just made up and not comic book heroes.
5. Who were the night costume heroes like Nighthawk?
First of all, Nighthawk was a western hero. True cc's that I know of are Batman ,(of course), we..l..l..l why not let the readers send me their lists of night costume characters and I'll work up a list. Go to it gang and please...no villains.

From R.J. Banks: Concerning Allen Jays Wonder Woman newspaper strip question; "I know that there was such a daily strip syndicated at least during a part of the war, as I saw about a dozen different dates of it in a Honolulu newspaper that one of my uncles stationed in Hawaii brought home. Don't know if there was a Sunday strip or not and don't know how widely the daily was syndicated. I do know that among those I saw there were definitely at least two very different WW adventures and were consistent with (but not identical stories) her adventures in the very early issues of her book.

From reliable Jerome Sinkovec: For J.L. Watson. Back in the late fifties, besides Green Arrow and Challengers, Kirby did a bunch of stories and covers for House of Secrets, House of Mystery etc.
For Joe Sturm; Who asked "What order did Marvel Comics begin to be printed" well I knocked together the enclosed History of Marvel. (see page #3). On reprints; Menace of Dr. Grimm in Fant Mast #4 was called Horror Hospital in Capt. America #4 and the teeth on Gorgo or whatever his name were redrawn so they didn't touch Cap's throat.

Jerome also has the dates for Strange Tales and Journey into Mystery that Greg Shaw wanted. Strange Tales #1 was June and not Dec.1951.

#1 June '51 thru 7 June '52 were bi-monthly
#8 July '52 thru 30 July '54 were monthly
#31 Aug. '54 thru 37 Aug '55 were bi-monthly
#38 Sept. '55 thru 58 May '57 were monthly
#59 thru 64 ???
#65 Oct. '58 thru 77 Oct '60 were bi-monthly

Journey into Mystery
#1 thru 19 ???
#20 Dec. '54 thru 23 March '55 monthly
#24 May '55 thru 26 Sept. '55 bi-monthly
#27 Oct. '55 thru 46 May '57 monthly
#47 June '57 thru 59 July '60 bi-monthly

Jerome now has three or four questions:

1. Which paperback covers has Steranko done?
   One is all I know of as yet. Lancer's "The Mighty Barbarians"
2. How many Capt. Future stories have been printed in paperback and what are the titles.
   I don't know. Can anyone help???
3. What fanzines were there for EC back in the fifties?
   Again readers, I need help.
4. How long have you been in fandom?
   Since 1960.

More on that first question. According to The Comic Reader Steranko has also done covers for the ~~re-issue~~ of "The Dream Makers" and "Prisoners of the Sky"- both Lancer Books. He is also doing covers for the G-8 series from Berkley Medallion.

Some questions from Doug Martin:

1. In checking, I can't find what feature replaced Crimson Avenger in Detective. How come it was dropped. Ditto Three-Ring Binks & Mysto in Det. Also Zatara, Black Pirate, Three Aces and Hayfoot Henry in Action?
   Well for one, who cares about Three Ring Binks and Hayfoot Henry? Nothing replaced The Crimson Avenger as I figure #89 was the last 60 page issue and it was dropped when the page count went to 52. Mysto was probably not to popular. Three Aces probably dropped when Action went from 68 to 60 pages. The Vigilante replaced The Black Pirate and I guess Zatara just ran his course.
2. What were the titles of the Batman stories that appeared in Detective 80-89?
   If possible, and readers will help, we want to do a check list on all the Batman stories from Det.
3. What non super hero features have appeared in Adventure comics since the first Sandman story? That is, debut was after Sandman.
   Congorilla in 270-281, 283. Tales of the Bizarro World 285-299. Tales of the Legion of Super Heroes 300-308. Socko Strong 40-54. Steve Conrad 47-76. Mark Lansing 53-62. Paul Kirk, Manhunter 58-72 and Mike Gibbs, Guerrilla 84-102.
4. What features appeared in Flash Comics besides Flash, Hawkman, The Whip, Johnny Thunder, Black Canary, Ghost Patrol and Atom?
   There were: Hop Harrigan 66-68. Little Boy Blue 81. The King 3-37, 39-41. Les Watts (Sparks) 12-28. Rod Rian 2-11. Cliff Cornwall 1-17. Minute Movies 1-59 and some one shots etc.

5. What's the deal on Mercury that appeared in Marvel Super Heroes #14? Was he really Hurricane? If not, where did he appear?
   Well Doug, Mercury only appeared in Red Raven Comics and there was only one issue of Red Raven and it came out in 1940.

Mark Proskey tells us that Quality's Spirit Comic #12 had three stories bearing Will Eisner's art. Can anyone confirm this?

Dennis Myers says: "My questions concern a copy of The Adventures of the Man-God HERCULES #8 Dec. 1968, which I have. It was published by Charlton and was 35¢, being in black & white and the size of the Spidey Spectacular and the Warren mags. It contains two Hercules stories, "The Fantastic Giant Boar" and "Origin of the Man-God" plus chapters 1-3 of Thane of Bagarth. My question is; Are there any other issues of Hercules in B & W or was this an experiment which somehow got #8 tagged upon it? Is it rare?
Well Dennis, I never heard of this book so there was a 1968 comic that got by me. Rare? Might be. George Detrow tells me this was a reprint of the regular Hercules Comic, but he don't know from which issue.

Reguarding Jerry Sinkovec's second question concerning Capt. Future, on page 4, George Detrow has this to say: There are at least six issues out and maybe more. The six I have are "The Comet Kings" #60-2407, "The Solar Invasion" #60-2346, "Outlaws of the Moon" #60-2399, "Calling Captain Future" #60-2421, "Captain Future's Challenge" #60-2430 and "The Tenth Planet" #60-2445.

More on the Wonder Woman newspaper strip. Ed Aprill Jr. not only says yes but that he has in his collection Wonder Woman daily strips from Aug. 14, 1944 to Nov. 10,1945. So now we know these costume heroes who have had there own newspaper comic strip: Superman, Batman, Wonder Woman, The Shadow, Miss Fury, Blue Beetle and Green Mask. Are there any others????

Ethan Roberts says: There were only 14 issues of Ghost Rider Comics (part of the A-1 series put out by ME which included Thund'a, White Indian, Best of the West, Jimmy Durante and many other short run titles.) A fifteenth issue was planned but never published. The 5 stories for that issue (3 Ghost Rider and 2 Tales of the Ghost Rider) were never published. Another Ghost Rider story, which was intended for Black Phantom #2 was never published. In all, there were 124 Ghost Rider and Tales of the Ghost Rider stories drawn for ME (118 published). The first story was completed July 15,1949 and the last story appeared in Red Mask #50 May 1954. The Marvel version of GR was vastley inferior to the original, a mere ghost of the Ghost Rider due to poor stories. The first Prince Valiant page appeared Feb. 14, 1937 and was a tabloid size feature. The first full page appeared Feb. 13, 1938.
-- and some questions from Ethan:
1. When is From Beyond featuring Deadman going to appear?
   It isn't. By the time you read this Deadman should be appearing in Aquaman Comics.
2. Could you summarize the artists working on Spirit sections? I would especially like you to define the period of time Will Eisner and Lou Fine worked on the strip. Also which sections featured Sylvia "Silk" Satan in the Spirit strip and which sections did Powell do Mr. Mystic?
   Well I can't answer the "Silk" Satan part. These sections Eisner definitely drew or laid out which is almost the same in this case, were: June 2,1940 - sometime in June 1942. Fine started in June '42 and was still doing the Spirit in 1944 when I lost track. Eisner back for 1947-51 but I don't know first & last dates. Powell's Mr. Mystic- June 2, 1940- Oct.3, 1943.

In issue #66 Dee and Boyd Magers wanted to know how many issues there where of EC's Saddle Romanees and Modern Love and when did International change to Crime Patrol?
Jerry Jones has the answer; Saddle Romances (formerly Saddle Justice) same numbering system, ran #9 thru #11 and continued as Weird Science with #12. Modern Love ran #1 thru #8 and International Comics #1 Spring 1947 thru #6 became Crime Patrol for #7 thru #16 and then ran as Crypt of Terror 17-19 and then as Tales from the Crypt 20-46.

Can anyone help Ed Tecson on these Jack Davis questions? Was there any Davis art in Help #2 and #17? Some leads to obtaining Jack Davis studio cards artwork of mid 1950's. Anyone know the greeting card companies he illustrated for?

Carl Horak wants to know:
1. Who besides Foster, Rubimore, Hogarth, Maxon, Juhre, Lubbers and Celardo have done the daily and Sunday Tarzan?
   Russ Manning is the current Tarzan artist on both the daily and Sunday strip. Of those you listed, only Wm. Juhre never worked on the sunday strip. Others to work on the dailies were: Dan Barry, John Lehti, Paul Reinman and Nick Cardy.
2. Is Rex Maxon still living? Skimming through a copy of Turok, I notice a familiarity of art style...Now that wouldn't be....
   Yes it would be as Maxon has done fillers for this title.
3. Carl also wants to know around what year Hal Foster did magazine illustrations and for what magazines?

Can anyone identify these three coverless Atlas comics for Warner Bailey?
1. Lead story "I Defied Gomdulla, the living Pharaoh" art by Kirby and Ayers. 2."I Entered the Dimension of Doom". likely Kirby. 3.World's at War?

Warner also asks: Why Atlas put out Amazing Adult Fantasy, JIM while Vista put out Tales of Suspense etc and Zenith put out Hulk etc. Also is there any fanzine that tells about all Timely-Atlas-Marvel Comics? First I'm not sure why Atlas-Marvel used so many different names for publishers. Even in the early days of Timely they did this. Marvel Mystery, Mystic etc were by Timely while USA, All winners etc were by USA Comic Corp. I know of no complete index of all Timely-Atlas-Marvel titles but the nearest thing to it would be the Timely Comic Index by Mike Nolan (see page 97 in RB-CC 66). Anyone know of a Atlas/Marvel index?

Here is one for you Blackhawk fans. John L. Biddle has a coverless 1963 Blackhawk which has the lead story "The Valley of Angry Giants". What is the number, date and artists? And John, that Great Action Comic #1 and the coverless western that you have were both reprint books from the early 60's. Great Action #1 reprinted stories from around 1945-46. The other is also an IW reprint and the Kit West story would be from around 1948-49 from an Avon "Cow Puncher" comic. Anyone know for sure?

Robert Pinaha has these questions:
1. What is a Marvel "No Prize"? I sent a letter a few months ago pointing out a mistake in Capt. America and a few weeks later I received, in the mail, a sheet containing all the Marvel Bullpen's writer's and Artist's autographs. Is this a no-prize?
   Well some of you "No-Prize" winners out there..what is a no-prize?
2. How many issues were there of Green Hornet Comics?
   There were 47 issues. #1 was Dec.1940 and #47 was Sept.1949. #1 thru 6 were by The Helnit Publishing Co. while #7-47 were by Harvey which was known as Family before 1946.

3. Were there ever any costume changes of the Green Hornet?
   No there wasn't. Sometimes his coat was brown and sometimes green.
4. What was the Green Hornet's origin?
   I don't think there was a real origin. After having lived a youthful no-account life, Britt Reid was made publisher of The Sentinel and took his new role seriously and developed a keen interest in the rackets that evaded the law. Possessing the cleverness of a master detective Britt began dealing with these enemies as the Green Hornet. This was nothing new to the Reid family because Britt's great uncle was none other then the masked rider of the plains The Lone Ranger.
5. How long did the radio show last and who played the leads?
   The show began in the thirties and went of the air in 1952. Hornet was played by Al Hodge (TV'S Capt.Video) followed by 17 year old Bob Hall during the war years, then by Jack McCarthy. Kato was played by Roland Parker, Lenore Case by Lee Allman and old Dan Reid was played by John Todd who also was the Lone Ranger's Tonto.

Robert Pinaha also has some Doc Savage info which has already been covered so need to repeat it. Then he has this Shadow info: The Shadow stories originally appeared in the magazine of the same name, first published in 1931 by Street and Smith Publications (now merged with Conde' Nast). There were about 178 stories written by Maxwell Grant (pen name of Walter B. Gibson).

These questions come from Jay Battmer:
1. What was the last issue of Captain America?
   The last issue of the original series was #75 Feb. 1950 but the last issue to contain Cap was #74 Oct. 1949. Both 74 and 75 were called Captain America's Weird Tales. Then there were three issues published in 1954. #76, 77 and 78 which were dated May, July and Sept.
2. Where was the first appearance of The Catman? Date?
   In Catman #1 May 1941. But there was a Cat-Man in Amazing Man #5 Sept. 1939 which I've never seen. In a 1944-45 reprint comic there was a Catman who had a different costume then the Holyoke one but both had the same AE.
3. Where did Dr. Fate and the Hourman first appear?
   Dr. Fate was first in More Fun #55 and Hourman in Adventure #48.
4. Where was the first appearance of Wildcat?
   In Sensation #1.

Here are a few questions from Toledo, Ohio which was unsigned:
1. What were the features of Worlds Finest except super heroes #1-181 and there runs? Also what super heroes except Superman and Batman appeared after #75?
   Johnny Thunder 1-3, Zatara 1-41, 47-51, Lando 1-5, 8. Boy Commandos 8-41. Tommy Tomorrow 102-124, Red, White and Blue 1-7, Drafty 1-3, 6-14. Young Doc Davis 1-4. Johnny Everyman 15-26, 28, 30. Toma-Hawk 33-35, 65-88, 90-101. Wyoming Kid 42-64. Tom Sparks 49-58 and a number of one and two issue features. After #75 Aquaman was in 125-133 and Green Arrow thru 133. (He started in #7.)
2. In which comics did Mac Raboy's artwork appear?
   A few stories in Master before #21. He did Bulletman in Master 21 and 22 and Capt.Marvel Jr. in 23 thru 45 at least.
3. What was in Capt. Aero Comics?
   Capt. Aero 1-25. Alias X 1-13. Commandos of the Devildogs 5-15 at least. Al Addin 4-7. P.T. Patrol 4-7. Capt.Aeros Sky Scouts 1-25. Miss Victory 6-25. The Enchanted Woods 4,6-8 (not sure of 1-3). Flagman and Rusty 1-14. The Red Cross 8-25. Hammerhead Hawley 8-14. Pals of Freedom 3 (not sure of 1-2). The Gargoyle 4,5. and Mighty Mite 15-25. The very best issues (for the three cc's Miss Victory, Red Cross and Flagman) are 8-10.

Greg Theakston adds this to the question "Did Jack Kirby do any other work for DC in the late 50's and early 60's besides the Challengers" asked by John Watson in #66. Kirby did work in World's Finest 96-98 and Adventure 252-256 on Green Arrow and all Showcase work done by Kirby in 4,5,7 were inked by Wood.

Bob Cuniglio says "I have a copy of Batmania #2 by Biljo White, so can you tell me how much it would be to collectors and if Biljo is still publishing Batmania?
Probably #2 would be worth $1 and I don't think it is published any more---at least I've seen no adds for it.
And three more questions from Bob....

2. What was the last Superman story done by Jerry Siegel and Joe Shuster for DC?
   I can't answer that but I'd guess sometime in 1948.
3. When did the first "ballon" appear on each of the following comic's covers: Action, Adventure (with Superboy), Detective (with Batman), Superman and Batman Comics as well as World's Finest and any Timely titles?
   I can't answer that...CAN ANYONE ELSE?
4. Did Batman ever carry a gun and did he ever use it?
   He carried a gun in his origin story in Detective #33 and fired it once, at a machine.

Robert Paul wants to know:
1. I have a copy of Crash Comics with no cover and wish to know the number and date. It contains Strongman, the perfect Human, Blue Streak the Defender of the People, The Flying Trio and a short story called Danger Dive by Robert Turner/?
   Sorry but I can't help you.
2. How many issues of Crash Comics were there?
   This was one of those odd ball titles and there were at least 5 issues with #1 being May 1940 but I don't know the date of #5 nor the name of the publisher.
3. What super heroes have Simon and Kirby worked together on besides Capt. America, Sandman and Blue Bolt?
   Besides the three about heroes....Manhunter, Guardian, Vision, Fly, Shield (Pvt. Strong), Fighting American, Stuntman come to mind.

Steve Leone asks:
1. What comic did DC's Fact File #3 appear in?
   That is a very popular question and as yet I haven't found anyone who has seen it.
2. What were the powers of the original Atom?
   Just extra-ordinary strength.
3. DC Special #4 was a collection of Horror and suspense stories. One of these stories looked like it was drawn by Jack Kirby. Was it?
   More then likely as Kirby did many such stories in House of Mystery House of Secrets etc.
4. I noticed that every now and then you make a list of titles of stories that appeared in a comic. Have you ever thought of doing one on DC's 80 page Giants and now just "Giant"?
   No I haven't but if someone wants to do one, I'll print it. I also need the original issues all the super hero stories Marvel reprinted in their 25¢ issues first appeared. Some of the earlier stories in MSH listed the original issues but later ones didn't and those are the ones I need help on.

Carl Hopkins has these two questions: What was the number of the Captain Marvel Comic book that had a big hand across the cover and the hand was erasing Captain Marvel with an eraser. I think it was one of the later issues. Also were there two different Captain Marvel wrist watches? I say there were, but would like to know for sure. One watch would have been smaller than the other and I think both were made by the same manufacturer. I have the smaller one. Do you, or any one in fandom know the answer?
Re: the first part of your question is answered by Gene Arnold who says the issue you have in mind was Captain Marvel #97 June 1949 and the story inside deals with a character who has a magic eraser.
Re: the second part. I asked Tom Fisher about this and he says he isn't sure, but there must have been if you have a small wrist watch because he has the larger one. More then likely there were both a boys and girls watch.

Roger McClanner would like to know:

1. In All Star 24 (Spring 1945) there is a Hawkman strip by Kubert. What other issues of All Star and Flash had Kubert art?
   Joe Kubert did Hawkman in All Star 24-30, 33-37. I'm not 100% sure of Flash Comics but am sure he did #62 (first) thru 72 and 92 thru 104. He didn't do #'s 77, 79, 83 (cover was by him), 87, 89 and91. Kubert did do the cover of 91. So that only leaves 73-76, 78, 80-82, 84-86, 88 and 90 I'm not sure of.
2. Action #17 (Oct. 1939) has Clip Carson strip by Bob Kane. What other comics have Bob Kane art besides Batman?
   Exact strips I don't know but he did do a lot of stuff for DC in his pre Batman days. I believe there was a strip in early Jumbo Comics that Kane did called Bobby.
3. In All-American #28 (July 1941) there is a story featuring the original Red Tornado. What other comics have this strip?
   Comic Cavalcade #4 and 7 and All-American 23-59.
4. In More Fun #54 (April 1940) there is a Biff Bronson strip that looks remarkably like Al Capp artwork, but it's signed by Albert and Joseph Sulman. Could this be Al Capp art?
   No, it isn't Al Capp art. Joseph Sulman did Zatara in 1940-43.
5. In Action #42 (nov. 1941) there is an ad for Prize Comics. The ad reads "Newcomer! Spike Mason -hard-hitting, Two-fisted agent of U.S. Naval Intelligence joins all your old favorites in the Nov. issue of Prize Comics. Don't miss it." Were any issues of Prize Comics ever actually published by DC? If so, could you give me some information on it?
   DC never published Prize Comics or it's sister mag Headline even though they carried ads for Prize all though 1941-43 and for Headline Comics in 1943. Prize was published by Feature Publications and by Prize Publications in later years. #1 was dated March 1940 and the last issue, before it became Prize Western was #68 Feb-March 1948. Some of the better known strips were: The Black Owl who started around 3 or 4, and ended with #33, Yank and Doodle who started with #13. With #34 Y & D and Black Owl became one strip and ran till about #55. Power Nelson was in 1-23. Frankenstien started before #7 and ran thru 67. Green Lama also started before #7 and ran thru #34. Spike Nelson 16-23. Dr. Frost before 7 thru 34. Ted O'Neil 1-44. Airmale 34-46. Flying Fist 35-46. Sir Prize around 45-61 and 65. I beleive Y & D made it to 67 without the Black Owl. But not in every issue after #52.
   Some Additions by Roger for #66. Green Lantern made á brief appearance in All Flash 14 and the Guardian was in Star Spangled 63.

Howard Ekman asks:

1. I was wondering how one comes to obtain a piece of original art without purchasing it from a dealer?
   Well at one time DC and Gold Key gave it away when you got a letter printed in one of their letters pages but don't think either gives original art away anymore. Some of the newspaper strip artists will give it away for the asking as I've tried it and gotten art from the likes of Paul Norris and Milton Caniff.
2. Could you tell me in what comics and in what issues did Mandrake ever appear in.
   Mandrake appeared in almost all Magic Comics and for those issues before 1944 get any before #54. After #55 or so the page count would be cut. Mandrake was also featured in these Mckay Feature Books #'18,19,23,46,52 and 55. Those were Mandrake books.
3. Were has Buck Rogers appeared?
   In most Famous Funnies (about #3 thru 215 at least) as well as in Buck Rogers 1-7. A Gold Key issue in 1964 and I think some issues in the fifties. Can anyone supply me with a Buck Rogers checklist?
4. Were has Flash Gordon appeared?
   In the current King and Charlton issues. One GK reprint in 1965. Seven Dell issues from 1947-1953. Dell 4C 10 and 84. Feature Book 25. 4 Harvey books (see below). King Comics 1-155. (114 last Raymond). Two Dell Fast Action & 13 Big Little Books. Magic 107-8.

5. Were has Tarzan appeared?
   Comics on Parade 1-29, Crackerjack Funnies 15-36 (mostly text), Single Series #20, Sparkler Comics 1-87,90-92, Tarzan B&W #5, Dell Gold Key #1 on, Tarzan one shots (Dell) 134,161 and Tip Top 1-62 and 171-188. Also at least 10 Dell 25¢ annuals. All Dell- 2 one shots, regular series 1 thru GK till Manning took over and the 25¢ issues were by Jesse Marsh.

A few questions from Tony Foster:

1. Are the horror mags at Charlton (Ghost Manor, Ghostly Tales, The Many Ghosts of DR. Grave etc) using new stories by Ditko or are they reprints?
   Since no Charlton comics are sold around here I can't say,so does anyone know for sure?
2. What mags did Ditko do at Warren?
   I don't have them all but do know he had stories in Creepy #9-16 and Eerie 3-10.
3. When did Harvey publish Flash Gordon 1-4 and who drew those four issues?
   #1 was Oct.1950. #2 was Dec.1950. #3 was Feb.1951 and #4 was April 1951. All were by Alex Raymond. All were Sunday reprints. #1 reprinted from 7/14/40 - 12/8/40. #2 from 12/15/40 - 4/27/41. #3 from 5/4/41 - 9/21/41 and #4 from 10/24/37 - 3/20/38.

Alan Braun has a couple corrections: In my question in RB-CC #66 you forgot to list Atlas as one of the companies Kirby worked for.(Sorry Alan). Also you list the second story in Capt. America (Hunchback of Hollywood and the Movie Murders) as having 11 pages. My issue has 16 and I'm missing pages? Again I'm sorry. That should read 17 pages.
Then Alan has these questions:

1. What are the most expensive comics?
   These have to be high on the list. Action #1, Batman #1, Superman #1, Tarzan Single Series #20, Flash Gordon 4c #10.

2. what are the oldest fanzines not being published today and what are the oldest fanzines being published today?
   Some of the old ones not around today are Spotlight, Some EC zines, Heroes Hangout etc. Oldest being published are Alter Ego, The Comic Reader and RB-CC.
3. There have been some comic strips done by comic book artists. Could you name strip and who did it?
   These comic book artists have done the following strips: Bob Lubbers - Tarzan, Secret Agent X-9 and Robin Malon, Jack Kirby and Wally Wood - Sky Masters, John Celardo - Tarzan, Davy Jones and Lassie, Bob Kane - Batman, Al McWilliams - Davy Jones and Dateline Danger, Al Williamson - Secret Agent X-9 to name a few.
4. Who did the art in Fawcett's Capt. Marvel and Capt. Marvel Jr?
   C.C. Beck, George Tuska, Chic Stone, David Berg and Pete Costanza worked on Capt. Marvel. Mac Raboy, Bud Thompson and Al Carreno were three of the Jr. artists.
5. When did the Alley Awards start?
   Around 1962.

Send your questions and two 6¢ stamps to Raymond L. Miller RD #1 Box 131-C Creekside, Penna. 15732. Limit..6 questions per letter. Send any answers and/or corrections to same address.

Plug time: No free plugs unless it is something really outstanding for fandom and I can think of nothing more outstanding then Jerry Bails' Collector's Guide to the First Heroic Age. Here is a book (and I will not call it a fanzine) of the highest quality possible. A book no words can discribe, seeing is beleiveing. Within these 88 pages are the names of every costume hero ever published before 1955. Their every day identities, the titles and issues they appeared in, dates, artists, writers and more. I know G.B will bare with me that no other fan project has ever rated a free plug as the Collectors Guide does. My hat off to you, Jerry and Jean for a project well done. Get your copy from Jerry and Jean Bails P.O. Box 7499, Northend Station, Detroit, Mich. 48202. [redacted]. It is worth every cent and more. Well Jer...How's that from one old timer to another?

Last issue Ray Stanich asked for a Ray Bradbury / EC check list and Meade Frierson 111 and Patrick Snead came to the rescue.

To this add a story which started the whole thing. "Home to Stay" in Weird Fantasy #13 which was a combination of Bradbury's "Kaleidoscope" and "The Rocket Man". This story brought a letter of protest from Mr. Bradbury which in turn led to the EC adaptions (with full credit given)
* EC stories reprinted in Ballantine's Tomorrow Midnight.  EC stories reprinted in Ballantine's The Autumn People.

Meade also adds this to Dan Brown's question in #67. Then add to the information and to contradict some erroneous parts of my answer: Meade lists:

Tiny Tot Comics 1-10 (drawn primarily by Ruth & Burton Geller). Land of the Lost 1-9 (drawn primarily by Olive Bailey). Animated #1 (drawn by Al Fago and others). Gunfighters 5-14; Saddle Justice 3-8; Saddle Romance 9-11; International 1-5; International Crime Patrol 6; Crime Patrol 7-16; War Against Crime 1-11;Moon Girl and the Prince #1 (by Sheldon Moldoff); Moon Girl 2-8 (mainly Moldoff); A Moon, a Girl, Romance 9-12; Modern Love 1-8; Crypt of Terror 17-19; Tales from the Crypt 20-46; Haunt of Fear 15-17,4-28; Weird Fantasy 13-18,7-22.

Hara, Harry Harrison, A.M.Iger, Walter Johnson, Saul Kessler, Henry C. Kiefer, Haward Larsen, Mort Leav, Rolland Livingstone, Ed Moore, Rudy Palais, Fred Peters, George Roussos, Kurt Schaffenberger, Eddie Schwartz, Allen Simon, John Sink, Ed Waldman and Ed Wheelan.
New Trend and New Direction: (1950-1955); Davy Berg, Sid Check, Gene Colan, Mac Elkin, Ric Estrada, Roy Krenkel, Bernie Krigstein, Howard Larsen, Jack Oleson and Bazil Wolverton.

Meade Frierson 111 wants to know if anyone can help him with his collecting of Neal Adams, Wayne Howard and Jerry Grandenetti art. He would like to know the titles and issues their art has appeared in/ especially what issues had interior art by Adams.
Well fans, can anyone help Meade? This I do have...

Neal Adams ; X-Men 56-63,65. Brave and the Bold 79-86, Spectre 2-5, Deadman in Strange Adventures 205-216, Creepy 14-16 and Eerie 9 and 10.

Jerry Grandenetti; Spectre 6-10, Secret Files of Dr. Drew in Rangers 53-60, Quality's Spirit Comic 18-22, Creepy 13-15 and Eerie 7-11.

The above is all the data I have on those artists. Adams also did the newspaper strip Ben Casey.

Patrick Snead wants to know:

1. Can you give me a complete or partial checklist of Walt Kelly artwork in comicsbooks?
   Sorry but I can't. Can anyone else?
2. How long did Kubert's Green Beret strip run?
   I don't have the exact date but New York News started syndicating it all over the country on Monday April 4, 1966 and Kubert remained on it till late 1968.
3. What Adventure Comics did Frazetta do art for? Has anyone, or is anyone going to publish a Frazetta checklist?
   Fitz did Shining Knight in Adv. 150,51,53,55,57,59,61,63. Spa Fon #2 had a one page Frazetta checklist. Anyone know of any others?

Complaint Department: Last issue I mentioned that a few of the adds in RB-CC wasn't on the up and up. Well complaints have been coming in and they seem to be aimed at these three people.... Mark Boseman of Norfolk Va., John Mazziotta - alias Lee's Comic Shop of El Paso, Texas and the one I got the most complaints about...Arnold Meyrowitz of Belle Harbor, New York. All three had adds; in #64 and they still owe money and comics to fans and I know at least one case each where a fan has threatened to sue. So think twice when you see those three names.

John Province wants to know:
1. What was the last issue and date of Famous Funnies?
   #218 July 1955.
2. What was the number and date of the last Super Comics?
   #121 Feb.-March 1949
3. What issues of More Fun did the Spectre appear in?
   More Fun #52 - 101.
4. What has happened to Joe Shuster and Jerry Siegel?
   Jerry Siegel is on the West Coast and Joe Shuster is blind.
5. Is Dick (Buck Rogers) Calkins alive ? If not,what year did he die?
   Dick Calkins is dead. I'm not sure of the year. '65 or '66????

William Brown would like to know the names of all the artists who have drew the Flash Gordon and Buck Rogers newspaper strips and if possible, list the years in which they handled the strip?
-Well I'll try but may need help. Taking Flash Gordon first:
Alex Raymond did the Sunday from Jan. 7, 1934 thru April 30, 1944.
Austin Briggs did the Sunday from May 7, 1944 into 1946. He also did the daily strip in the 30's and early '40's.
Mac Raboy did the Sunday from 1946 thru 1967.
The daily has been handled mostly by Dan Barry.
As for Buck Rogers I'll need help. Artists I know were Dick Calkins, Rick Yeager and George Tuska.

More complains: George's Comic Shop,Brooklyn, New York advertises things they don't have and then will not refund your money no matter how many times you request it. Late news on Mr. Mazziotta. The El Paso postal inspector asked that all future complaints about Mazziotta be sent to him.

Larry Lisle asks:
1. Which EC Mad did the Disney Parody,"Mickey Rodent" appear in?
   Anyone know?
2. Which issue of Boy Comics did Chuck Chandler (C.B.) give up fighting crime and enter Curtiss College?
   I'd guess somewhere around 111.
3. In which issue of Daredevil did the Little Wise Guys first appear, and what was the last issue of the comic?
   The Little Wise Guys made their debut in DD #13 Oct. 1942 and the last issue was around #134 or so. I do know there was a #134.

Does anyone know how to join the Doc Savage Journal by Lynn Meyers and other D.S fanclubs or fanzines, asks Mike Gilmer.

Dave Parker wants to know what issue of World's Finest had the Superman story "Superman's Super-Self? HELP?

The Swindle List: So far lists, Mark Boseman, John Mazziotta, Arnold Meyrowitz, George's Comic Shop and now Wayne Redman.
The above names were listed as a public service by the fans who were swindled and is their sole responsibility and is no way connected to Editor Love or myself.

Does anyone know of any Sunday newspapers that carries Tarzan Tab size?

Jerry Sorek has this to add to questions that appeared last ish. The Martian Manhunter also appeared in MIS #75 with the JLA, as in Atom 8, GL 29, Aquaman 18, Superman 192, 199, Flash 171, 175, Brave & Bold 28-30. He was featured in 1-24, 27, 29, 31, 33, 36, 38-41, 44, 48, 50, 58-61, 67, 71 and B&B teamups in 60 as well as 50 and 56. He was also reprinted in Secret Orgins 1, 80 page Giant 8 and WF 175-6 and JLA reprints in 39, 48, 58 and 67.
There were 7 issues of Bomba and 35 of Sea Devils. My Greatest Adv. ran 85 issue. #86 was titled Doom Patrol although #80 was the first to feature them. It ran thru issue 121. Last issue of MIS was 110. The war title DC got from Quality was G.I. Combat. The horror title was, I beleive Web of Evil.

Jim Gayton wants to know:
1. I have copies of The Lone Ranger Vol.1 #48, June,1952, Zane Grey's King of the Royal Mounted #12 1953, Tarzan #82 July 1956 and Jungle Jim #18 1958. What are each worth?
   I'd guess at about 75¢ to a $1 depending on condition.
2. Has Russ Manning been taken off of Tarzan?
   If you mean the comic book, yes. Newspaper strip, No.
3. Could you tell me where I may write to, to reserve a copy of the E.C. Hardbound being published by Nostalgia Press?
   To Nostalgia Press,I guess.

Some answers from M.C. Goodwin:
Re: Bob Cuniglio in #65. There were four stories in Superman #1. Story #2 is a continued story from story #1 and story #2 is from Action #2 so the first story must be from Action #1.
Re: #63 and 66 corneering Kid Komics. There definitely was a #11 and it was dated Summer 1946 ,however it is all funny animal, no super heroes. So Kid Komics became comical just as DC's Leading did...

Richard Bright wants to know where these stories from Marvel Superheroes originally appeared/ Can anyone fill in the missing issues?

AN INFORMATION CENTER EXTRA

The following could not wait till next issue. Fans, it is pitiful the way MR. ARNOLD MEYROWITZ AND MR. JOHN MAZZIOTTI have milked fans out of their money and comics. Some fans have lost money and comics that go into a hundred dollars or more. Every fan who has been cheated by either should write to the Belle Harbor, N.Y P.O Inspector (for Meyrowitz) or the El Paso, Texas P.O.Inspector (for Mazziotti). It is a major crime to use the U.S.Mail for fraud. This goes for all others who have used the pages of RB*CC to cheat fans. You know who you are and so do we, so start making good or face the U.S. Government.

And now as a special favor to George Henderson of Capt. George's Comic World. George would like it to be made clear that the original owner of the name "The Comic World" is Robert Jennings and when he (George) started his publication he hadn't heard of the name being used before. Bob Jennings is one of the old-timers in fandom and George doesn't want any hard feelings with Bob so he wants me to inform fans that he will probably be changing Capt. George's Comic World to either 1. Capt. George's Comic Book or 2. Captain George Presents. As Editor of Info Center I say Hats Off to George for acknowledging this and I hope Bob will send George a note of thanks. And thank you George for the kind words about I.C. Your publication is tops with me.

I want to thank all the fans who have helped with the indexing of the Batman stories in Detective Comics. As of this writing I still need the title, page count and villain (if a recurring one) from DET. 39, 41, 47, 55, 64, 66, 81-83, 85-89, 132 and 179. Also want the same data from Batman 1, 2, 7, 17-163 and Worlds Finest 2, 4, 6, 9,10,12-70.

I'd still like a listing of all the DC 80 Page Giants.

As requested by many..a partial listing of the 1968 Alley Awards winners.

NEW COMIC COLLECTORS

All on + page for $280.00, I will pay postage, 1ns 700 COMICS

HERE IS YOUR CHANCE, YOU, THE NEW COLLECTOR OF MARVEL COMICS, TO START A COLLECTION OF MARVEL COMICS IN THE CHEAPEST WAY POSSIBLE ... BY BUYING IN SETS, OR RUNS. NOW IT IS TRUE THAT SETS MAY BE CHEAPER, BUT THE CONDITION OF THE COMICS IS NOT THE BEST. BUT IF YOU ARE A NEW FAN, YOU SOME TIMES DON'T HAVE THE MONEY FOR COMICS IN MINT CONDITION. MY SETS LISTED BELOW ARE ALL IN GENERALLY GOOD CONDITION. NONE ARE WORN OR DELAPIDATED. I AM JUST TRYING TO BE AS HONEST AS POSSIBLE ABOUT THERE CONDITION; FOR IT IS GETTING EVIDENT TO ME THAT PEOPLE TODAY ARE NOT ADVERTIZING THEIR COMICS HONESTLY. WHEN YOU BUY A COMIC LISTED IN "GOOD" CONDITION, YOU DON'T KNOW WHAT YOU COULD BE GETTING. I'M JUST SAYING THAT THE COMICS FOR SALE BELOW ARE NOT IN NEAR MINT TO MINT CONDITION. IF YOU ARE A STRICT COLLECTOR AND WANT ONLY EXTRA FINE TO MINT CONDITION, THEN THIS AD IS NOT FOR YOU. ON THE OTHER HAND, THE SETS ARE IN TRUE GOOD CONDITION. THEY HAVE ALL PAGES, ALL COVERS, SPINES ARE NOT ROLLED OR LOOSE. THERE ARE NO LARGE TEARS, NO WRITING ON COVERS. THEY WILL ALSO BE SOLD CHEAPER THAN ANY OTHER PERSON HAS EVER SOLD SETS. I HAVE JUST LISTED THE SETS, IF YOU ARE INTERESTED IN ONE, DROP ME A LINE AND QUOTE ME A PRICE THAT YOU THINK IS REASONABLE. ONE NOTE... WITH ALL INQUIRERES YOU MUST ENCLOSE A STAMPED SELF ADDRESSED ENVELOPE OR I CANNOT REPLY. FANS SHOULD REALIZE THAT AN AD THAT MIGHT ATTRACT A LARGE ANSWER COULD DRIVE ANOTHER FAN BROKE WITH THE COSTS OF POSTAGE AND ENVELOPES. HOPE YOU SEE SOMETHING THAT YOU LIKE, AND THANK YOU FOR TAKING THE TIME TO READ THIS AD.

Comics & Magazines---Reasonable. Dec. 1969 List

XXXXX TERMS: Comics range from poor to near mint condition. No Minimum order, but add 50¢ Service Charge for Postage/Handling Insurance. All orders are insured. ABBREVIATIONS: nm=Near Mint, F=Fine, VG=Very Good, FR=Fair, P=Poor, (C)= Coverless, ptofc or ptofc=piece(s)torn off front or back cover, w=writing. Poor & Fair are usually graded that way because of one of last 2 symbols, loose cover, or bad cond. cover--insides may be good. Prices on these are quite low. All sales final unless book is defective. Refunds on items prev. sold but list alternates if possibel, as I only have 1 copy of most of these. (2) or (3) indicates more than 1 copy. I constatntly get in new comics, so send wantlists if you so desire. Enclose a S.A.S.E. if you are sending w.l. or if you want your order confirmed. ALL BOOKS ARE COMPLETE. other abbrev:-- TS=taped spine, pci=pgs. colored in.
Send check or money order, cash at your own risk. ALL ORDERS SHIPPED OUT W/IN 48 HOURS, MOST W/IN 24. Thanks for reading this ad.

FUTURA NO. 9

At Last ... A Magazine Devoted To The Golden Age of Comics!

Futura No. Nine Features:

- HALFTONE, COLOR COVER BY ED LAHMANN*
- 15 ARTICLES (14 ARE REVIEWS LOADED WITH INFORMATION)
- 8 HIGH QUALITY COVER REPRODUCTIONS
- 8 PAGES OF ART FROM COMICS REVIEWED

*COVER SEEN IN RB-CC NO. 66 WILL NOT BE USED

If you are interested in or collect superhero comic books from the Golden Age you will not want to miss Futura #9. This issue features reviews of numerous old Marvel and DC (among other companies) ranging from 1939 to 1949. Our reviews are packed with information on not only the issue reviewed, but also on the frequency of the title and the appearances of the various strips during the life of the comic.

Among the superheroes you will read about are the early Superman, Batman, Flash, Green Lantern, Hawkman, Captain America, Human Torch, Sub-Mariner, and Plastic Man, as well as Mr. America, Crimson Avenger, Destroyer, Whizzer, and many others.

Futura #9 also features 8 cover reproductions which will interest everyone. In addition we will have 8 page reproductions taken from comics reviewed. These will reveal the style of the various illustrators to the reader, giving a look into the quality that marked the early comic books. All reproductions are produced by high quality halftone photo-offset.

MOVIE & RADIO TAPES

Rob McKay, 2329 Pelham Place, Oakland, California, 94611

Sound Quality:(Please take into consideration the fact that all of these films are at least 25 years old and many of them have rather worn sound tracks. As a result, a tape rated as having only VERY GOOD sound may have the best sound available anywhere of that particular movie).
EXCELLENT: Sharp and clear, with good tone.
VERY GOOD: Still clear with good tone, but may be a little"snowy" or not quite as clear,from age.
GOOD: May have too much treble or bass, with quality down a bit, but listening still very enjoyable.

DRACULA (1931): A classic. One hour,fourteen minutes long. With Bela Lugosi and Dwight Frye. VERY GOOD sound. $2.75

KING KONG (1933): One hour,thirty six minutes long. With Robert Armstrong and Fay Wray. GOOD sound. $3.50

FRANKENSTEIN (1931);:1 hour, 11 minutes long.(There are 11 spots of static on this tape ranging from 1.5 to 49 seconds long. With this static, there is therefore 1 minute and 57 seconds missing from the 1 hour and 11 minutes of this tape). VERY GOOD sound. $2.50

BRIDE OF FRANKENSTEIN (1935): One hour, six minutes long. With Karloff, Elsa Lanchester, and Colin Clive. EX. Minus beginning and end theames.$3.50

THE PRIVATE LIFE OF DON JUAN (1934): One hour, fifteen minutes long. $2.75 With Douglas Fairbanks Sr., Merle Oberon, and Binnie Barnes. V.G. sound.

MUTINEY ON THE BOUNTY (1935): One hour, thirty minutes long. With Clark Gable and Charles Laughton. EXCELLENT sound. $3.50

GREAT EXPECTATIONS(1934):One hour, thirtyfive minutes long. With Henry Hull and Jane Wyatt. EXCELLENT sound. $3.50

THE WERE WOLF OF LONDON (1935): Sixty minutes long. With Henry Hull, Valerie Hobson, and Warner Oland. VERY GOOD sound. $2.25

THE WOLF MAN (1941): Sixty one minutes long.With Lon Chaney Jr., Claude Rains, and Evelyn Ankers. VERY GOOD sound. $2.25

SHE DONE HIM WRONG (1933): Sixty minutes long. With Mae West, Cary Grant, and Noah Beery. VERY GOOD Sound. $2.25

RADIO SHOWS:

*MERCURY THEATRE OF THE AIR:"DRACULA" (This is the very first episode of M.T.O.T.A.) 65 min. GOOD Sound, though a little scrachy. $2.50
*DOCTOR I. Q.: Jan. 26,1942, 27 minutes, EXCELLENT Sound. $1.00
*AMOS & ANDY:1950 Christmas show. 30 minutes. Minus last minute, but story intact. EXCELLENT Sound.$1.00
* [illegible]:"Leiningen Vs. the Ants", EXCELLENT Sound,[illegible] minutes. $1.00
* MYSTERIOUS TRAVELER:"The Devil and the Deep Blue Sea" VERY GOOD Sound. [illegible] minutes. $1.00
{I have a few more movie and radio tapes that I did not have room to list. If interested, write to me and I will send list.
Please specify reel size you want. 3", 5", or 7".
Everything is recorded at 3 3/4 i.p.s., two track. I supply the tape, which is Scotch brand tape. Please enclose 30¢ for postage and insureance per item.

I have a bunch of comic books(435 to be exact.) Most of the books are in mint condition, and some of the books in the lot are: SPECTRE 1-10 PHANTOM STRANGER 1-4; CAPTAIN MARVEL 1, (new) THE CREEPER 1,3-6 SHIELD 6-13, CAPTAIN AMERICA 109-117 STRANGE ADVENTURES 205(1st DEADMAN) DC SPECIAL 1, HULK SPECIAL 1, FANTASY MASTERPIECES 11, THUNDER AGENTS 9-10 SUPERMAN 148-150. LOTS of 1st issues and I'll throw in for good measure, free of charge a stack fanzines and MADS. THE price: $70.00, this includes the cost of postage and insurance.

Jerry Bails has just published THE COLLECTOR'S GUIDE TO THE FIRST HEROIC AGE. It has a listing of over 700 strips of the golden age and there is only one word to describe this colossal piece of work-magnificent!!! This guide cost a lot of dough to print, so help keep Jerry Bails out of the poor house and order a couple of copies.

...BUYING...

Marvel Comics and other items

I am very interested in buying the following Marvel Comics in exrta- fine to mint condition only. I am not a dealer or a bookstore, I am a collector, so I am very conserned about condition. Therefore, I will also pay very good prices, more than the dealers and bookstores. But the comics must be in collectors condition. Also don't send any comics without contacting me first. I imagine that I can absorb more than one, maybe up to three or four, so write me if you have any of these comics and send me a price. I'm sure we can work something.

WONDER-COMICS NO. 1 IS HERE!
"WONDER-MAN"
For Wonder #1 Send $.30 To Tom Sullivan Alvord, Iowa 51230
$.25 plus .05 for postage for Wonder #1

WONDER COMICS number 1 is now on sale for 25¢, plus $ .05 for handling. It is a mimeographed comic-zine, and I am still adding material to it, but there should be about 15 pages in it when it is finished. There are no subscriptions as yet, and as for a second issue, that depends on the sales of issue #1.

A regular feature of this book will be my comic list, which is included free, and will be different each issue.

I am not asking for contributions yet, but I will be for future issues.

The material included in WONDER COMICS #1 will be (1)"The Origin of Mercury" and "The Powers of Wonder-Man", two stripe by me.(2)Add Section-For issue #1, the only adds will be mine, and add prices will be listed in issue #1.(3)Misc. Section-Including contests, letter column, and any other things that I may put in.

Terms: All of the following comics and artwork are for sale or for trade for my wants which are listed elsewhere in this ad. If you wish to trade, send me a list of what you have and the approximate value of each item and a list of what you wish to trade for. I will then write back and suggest a trade.

When ordering, send only money orders or personal checks. However unless I have dealt with you before I will wait for personal checks to clear.

On all orders of Golden age comics enclose 25¢ per comic you order to cover postage, packaging, and insurance. Thus if you order three Golden age comics you must enclose 75¢ extra.

On all orders of original art enclose 50¢ per page of art you order, so if you order 2 pieces of art you must enclose $1 extra. All art will be mailed in thick mailing tubes.

On all other orders enclose 25¢ postage.

I very badly need the Ace edition of Jungle Tales of Tarzan.

Hardcover Science Fiction:

I need all Heinlein books in hardcover, but only in vg-nm with dj. Naturally I would prefer first editions.

I need the following Isaac Asimov Hardcovers but they must be first editions and have dustjackets:

I, Robot
Second Foundation
The Caves of Steel
The Naked Sun
The Stars, Like Dust
The Currents of Space
The End of Eternity
Nine Tomorrows
Earth is Room Enough
The Death Dealers

And don't forget, my sweet, A FANZINE #2 is still available!
JimVanHollebeke - 1968

Donald's right! A FANZINE (formerly DISNEYDOM), fandom's only all Disney fanzine, is now in its second issue and is available for just 65¢. A FANZINE #2 is even greater than #1, larger too. Just look at some of the contents: A two-way look at the Duck Family Tree; A five-and-a-half page checklist of every Disney comic in the Dell Special Series; The second installment of "The Way to Tour Disneyland" on Tomorrowland; A progress report on the upcoming Walt Disney bibliography; A book review; An interview with Ben Sharpsteen, director of many of the greatest Disney movies; plus letters, questions and answers, notes, art, ads and other trivia. In all there are 20+ features and articles for the Disney fan. A FANZINE #2 is a fanzine that no Disney fan should be without. Thirty-two pages in offset with wrap-around binding. Order your copy today for 65¢ from:

Dan McAvoy, 5720 Middaugh Street, Downers Grove, Illinois 60515

And while you are at it, order your copy of the A FANZINE #1 Reprint Special. It is a special limited edition reprint of DISNEYDOM #1 complete with an all-new layout and improvements. If you couldn't get a copy of DISNEYDOM #1, or even if you did, your collection shouldn't be without the reprint special. Order now for just 50¢. All copies mailed flat in envelopes.

THE COMIC WORLD

After two years in the army, and another year of settling back into civilian life, we have brought THE COMIC WORLD back with the same format, style and writing which made us a top selling magazine in the past. The times have changed, and so have we. For one thing we're monthly now, and for another we're photo offset cover to cover. One thing that has not changed is our editorial policy. THE COMIC WORLD is still devoted to the principle that any subject worth writing about is worth covering in depth, and detail. You'll find no two and three page shortie articles in COMIC WORLD, only good substantial writing, well illustrated and well laid out.

THE COMIC WORLD #12 is now out, featuring forty full sized pages of the best in information and analysis of the comics field. Our features include---

THE GHOST RIDER	a complete, detailed examination of Magazine Enterprises's greatest comic creation covering every phase of his existence, with illustrations taken from the original comics
INFORMATION CENTER	our traditional, award winning column devoted to answering any and all questions concerning any phase of comicdom
JOHNNY CRAIG	by Robert Overstreet, a complete analysis of Craig's art, his style, his technique, his subject examination, the only article ever written which looks at his work strictly from an artistic point of view

Plus all the regular features and goodies which round out every issue of THE COMIC WORLD. Whether you are a new comer meeting us for the first time, or an old reader of long standing, we're sure you'll agree, that if you like comics, you're sure to like every issue of THE COMIC WORLD

THE COMIC WORLD #12, just 50¢. Send all orders to---

For those interested, we still have back issues of #5, 9, 10 and 11 at 50¢ each, and some copies of #8, the double sized revival issue at $1.00.

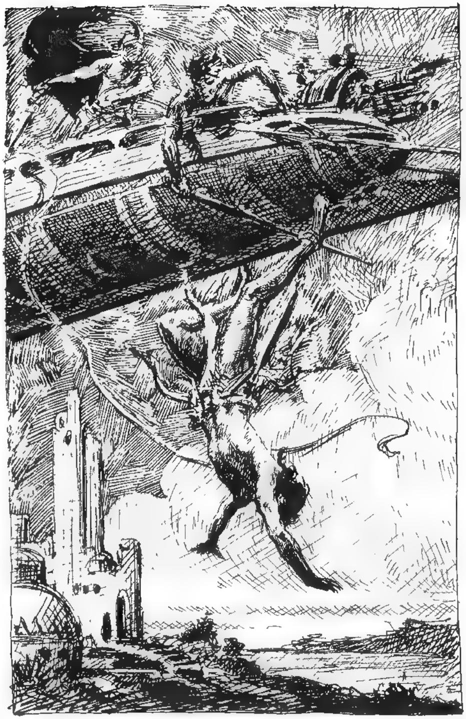
Amra



Amra began as a magazine for people specifically interested in reading about Robert E Howard's heroic character, Conan. Along the way, it has twice been awarded the Annual Science Fiction Achievement Award -- the HUGO -- for the best fanzine in those years. Not the least of its features is the uncommonly good artists Amra has managed to pick up, like Gray Morrow, Jim Cawthorn, Dan Adkins, Tim Kirk, George Barr, and Roy Krenkel (whose work appears to the right and below).

Over the years, Amra found it necessary to touch every field which had the least connection with Conan. Directly, Amra has had articles dealing with what we call sword-&-sorcery fiction: that kind of story in which the hero or the villian may cast a spell or wield a blade with equal propriety, according to the terrain and the tactical situation; in a general sense, stories with pre-gunpowder technology in which magic works. Thus, in addition to its first interest, Amra has covered other heroes invented by Howard, some other Conan-like heroic heroes written of by others, and people in swordplay-&-sorcery who are principal characters without being exactly heroic about it. Thus, we have gradually brought to our pages all the collateral areas of interest from archaeology, bronzeworking, and cozenage through xenanthropology, yachting, and zymurgics. In the past, our topics have ranged from technology to Theosophy, from the wily East to the Wild West, and from before the sinking of Atlantis to after the cooling of the sun. And always, we've been thoroughly illustrated by our crew of artists.

Amra v2 #51, just out, has articles by Sprague de Camp and Lin Carter, and a map of Lankhmar by Fritz Leiber; send us 50c for a copy. Or better, send us 4$ for the available back issues, ##44, 45, 46, 47, 48, 49, 50, and 51, and decide for yourself if Amra really deserved the awards given it by two World Science Fiction Conventions.

Checks and money orders should be made payable to "Amra"; remember, it is risky to send coins or currency through the mails.

AMRA, Box 8243, Philadelphia PA 19101

IN BRIEF:

AGACON '70, which will be the convention of the East Coast before Heicon, will be held at the Howell House Hotel on the weekend of 14, 15, 16 August 1970. It is an attempt to deliver a new idea in Southern Regionals. A combination of spectacle and scope never before reached in Science Fiction Conferences!! Our Guest of Honor is the internationally famous Sam Moskowitz!

MEMBERSHIPS:

Memberships are available for the following rates:

Supporting memberships – $1.50
Attending memberships – $2.50

GROUPS MEETING DURING AGACON '70:

The Southern Fandom Confederation will hold its 2nd annual meeting during the Conference. For information on the SFC contact either:

Janie Lamb
Route 1, Box 364
Heiskell, Tennessee

Glen T. Brock
Box No. 10885
Atlanta, Georgia 30310

The Marcel Delgado Appreciation Society will hold its first Annual Meeting during the Conference. Marcell Delgado will be their Guest of Honor, and he plans to bring some of the films he has worked on. The banquet will be open to members only. The next bulletin will have further information, and addresses.

FERNBANK SCIENCE CENTER:

Atlanta has the third largest planetarium in the USA at its Fernbank Science Center. The Center is attached to Emory University. The Observatory and planetarium are to be held for AGACON '70, and a private program concerning the development of the space program is planned.

THE GUARDSMEN OF INFINITY

GROTH & GRINAGE & WILSON. . . .& KLINE

60¢ * T.G.O.I. * 7263 EVANSTON ROAD * SPRINGFIELD, VIRGINIA * 22150 * 60¢

The purpose of this advertisement is NOT that of trying to convince you that THE GUARDSMEN OF INFINITY is the best of all of Fandom's Graphic Magazines. Instead, we wish to tell you a little about our effort, and let YOU be the judge! And the best way to do that, is to tell you WHAT we are so proud of in THE GUARDSMEN OF INFINITY!

WE ARE PROUD that THE GUARDSMEN OF INFINITY, as a whole - its plot - its format IS COMPLETELY UNIQUE! - NOT A COPY OF ANYTHING EVER DONE PREVIOUSLY! We have proven that an amatuer Graphic Magazine can be made, and can be made well!

OUR GREATEST PRIDE in THE GUARDSMEN OF INFINITY is the long hours of hard work that have been, and will continue to be, put into it. Of the nearly twelve months that went into research & development of the series. Of the fact that our story quality is perhaps the most demanding - certainly the most dramatic of ANY GRAPHIC STORY IN FANDOM! OUR PRIDE in this is reflected in the fact that the original pilot script was COMPLETELY REWRITTEN four times before we judged it fit to be in the premiere issue of THE GUARDSMEN OF INFINITY. While our story is primarily ACTION - ADVENTURE ENTERTAINMENT, the element of emotion and drama is TOO GREAT to be an undercurrent. It is an intergral, real NECESSARY part of the story!

WE ARE PROUD that we are not a fanzine. A fanzine is a potpourri of articles, spot illustrations, and perhaps a dinky 5 - 10 page ama - strip or two. THE GUARDSMEN OF INFINITY is a MAGAZINE, with ONE STRIP, the same as a pro ACTION - ENTERTAINMENT comic book! The same cast of characters each and every ish. Plus, of course, "guest stars" when the story demands it. It has a letters column (starting in TGOI # 2), an editorial, a few advertisements and that's it! No crudzine art or two-bit articles from Fandom unknowns that are there simply to take up space!!

WE ARE PROUD of the fact that we are not a fly-by-night crud publication, who might rush out one half-baked issue, and then never be heard from again! THE GUARDSMEN OF INFINITY IS HERE, AND IT IS HERE TO STAY!

WE ARE PROUD to have one of the most talented staffs around! First, there is GARY GROTH, one of the truly great editors of Fandom. An editor, who truly edits rather than merely assembles. Next we have script consultant and head writer, JIM WILSON, in the opinion of many on of the most brilliant young science fiction writers around. And last, but certainly not least, AL GRINAGE, whose beautiful artwork enhances, rather than degrades the story itself.

AND WHAT A STORY IT IS!! How can we even begin to describe to you the sheer drama of the tale between the two covers of this magnificent premiere issue? How can we tell you of the two young lovers caught in the madness of a galactic war? Of the fierce pride that burns like fire within the warriors, who seek only their revenge? Of the enemy, whose sheer hatred & evil transcend upon the small remainder of a once proud civilization they almost entirely wiped out of excistence? Of the Space Tracker, in whose hands rest the fate of an entire civilization? This story is the key to some of the most powerful and thought provoking reading you have ever seen.

WE HAVE PRIDE in our product, and we ask only one thing of you. Like us or not, give us raves or rip us apart, do us the favor of accepting that we work just as do the professionals. Within our own limitations of our medium, when we put our names on the final product it is the absolute best we have been able to do. We are confident of our product, and we trust that you will be too.

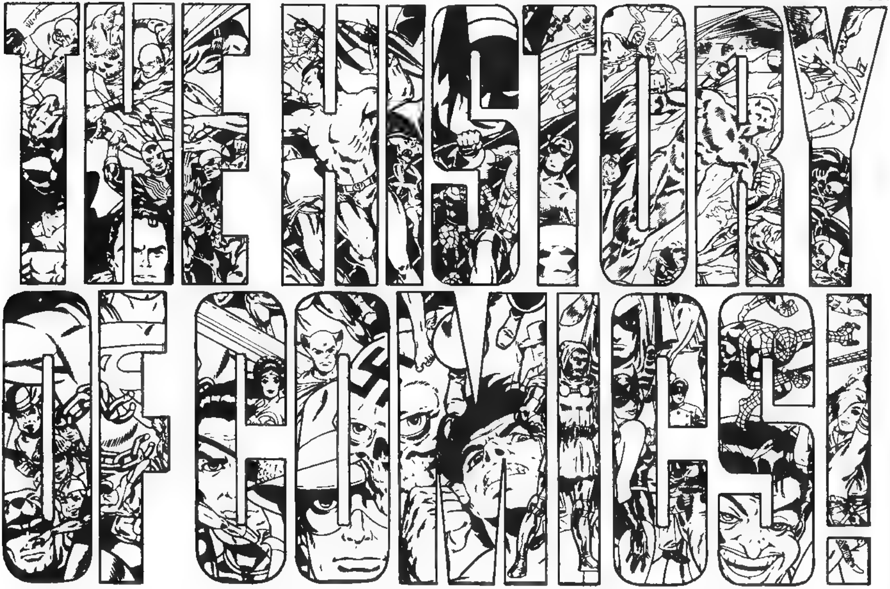
STERANKO HAS PRODUCED THE MOST EXCITING PACKAGE...EVER!



THE HISTORY OF COMICS!

The most talked about comic artist of the year has written the ultimate book on the comic scene. Between its covers lies the most complete and compelling compilation of the life and times of the comic ever published. STERANKO discloses the inside story of the comics from the golden age to the present. It's all here...page after page packed with the facts, figures, failures and favorites of the 40's, 50's and 60's. Marvel's most imaginative madman has created a penetrating and definitive analysis of comic book history. Milt Caniff, Alex Raymond, Hal Foster, Will Eisner, Jack Kirby, Reed Crandall, Wally Wood, Al Williamson, Frank Frazetta, Joe Kubert, Alex Toth, Carmine Infantino, Bob Powell, Joe Maneely, Jack Davis...all the greatest comic entrepreneurs are represented in a detailed chronology of comic art, accompanied by hundreds of exciting reproductions from the rarest golden age classics to the present. Add to this, direct from Wildwood Cemetery, the auspicious return of the Spirit in a complete adventure story. IT'S BIG...80 fantastic pages plus a mind-bending 11"x17" full color poster size cover by STERANKO starring 50 all time action comic heroes. IT'S BOLD... beginning with an eloquent introduction written especially for the book by one of the world's foremost directors, Federico Fellini, a galaxy of super-heroes and villains are traced thru 16 profusely illustrated chapters that will make you a comic expert overnight. The offbeat, the on-beat and the heartbeat of comics told thru dozens of incisive biographies and anecdotes about the writers, artists and publishers that make the world of comics live. Stan Lee says "It's a blockbuster!" As a work of reference, it will appeal to the student of comic art and to those nostalgic individuals who look fondly into the past at their childhood heroes. IT'S A SUPER COLLECTOR'S ITEM! SEND TODAY!!

THE ART

PRINTED exclusively in SPA FON #5 you'll find some of 1969's finest gifts to fandom from the very best fantasy artists around. A star-studded galaxy of art, including a FULL COLOR FRONT COVER by FRANK FRAZETTA, and a BACK COVER by BERNI WRIGHTSON that has made grown men wink at its monstrous beauty. FULL PAGE ILLUSTRATIONS galore literally CRAM the issue, including 9 Hickman Headliners, 3 Kaluta Tender Terrors, 5 Wrightson Mind-Wrackers. There's full page Reed Crandall (a Martian scene), John Fantucchio, & Steranko (an unpublished TALON scene), too. Rounding it out are dainty devilries by Roy Krenkel, Frazetta, Williamson, and designs aplenty by Master of Magical Philosophy Kenneth Smith. New talents Frank Brunner and Mike Cody are featured in keeping with the SPA FON age of artwork. VIEW the glimpses of this issue's art festooned about this page to get a SENSE of whats in store for you in SPA FON 5.

THE TEXT

THE TEXT this issue dows not let down the high mood of fantasy which the art carves out. Tucked tenderly into the 88 pages are the following:

* A 6,000 word interview with Jim Steranko. This great modern illustrator turns comics on their ear with his personal and incisive comments about comics & comic art.

* A 10,000 word interview with Bill Gaines, the publisher and "Father" of the dearly-departed EC comics. EC buffs will digest slowly this hearty meal of behind-the scenes glimpses and information.

* An unequalled Frank Frazetta Checklist, stretching for pages. Full of all the listings of his printed work.

* Editorial, poems, an original story and fairy tale.

Have we left out anything? Sure! Plenty of surprises! But supplies ARE limited, so ORDER NOW ($2 per copy) from—
